KEEP THIS NOTICE FOR FUTURE USE

This notice contains important information about your rights and our responsibilities under the Fair Credit Billing Act.

NOTIFY US IN CASE OF ERRORS OR QUESTIONS ABOUT YOUR BILL

If you think your bill is wrong, or if you need more information about a transaction on your bill, write to us on a separate sheet at the address listed on your statement. Write to us as soon as possible. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the first statement on which the error or problem appeared. You can telephone us, but doing so will not preserve your rights.

In your letter, give us the following information

- Your name and account number
- The dollar amount of the suspected error.
- Describe the error and explain why you believe there is an error. If you need more information, describe the item in question.

If you have authorized us to pay your credit card payment automatically from your savings or checking account, you can stop the payment on any amount you think is wrong. To stop the payment, your letter must reach us three business days before the automatic payment is scheduled to occur.

YOUR RIGHTS AND OUR RESPONSIBILITIES AFTER WE RECEIVE YOUR WRITTEN NOTICE

We must acknowledge your letter within 30 days, unless we have corrected the error by then. Within 90 days, we must either correct the error or explain why we believe the statement was correct.

After we receive your letter, we cannot try to collect any amount you question, or report you as delinquent. We can continue to bill you for the amount you question, including Finance Charges, and we can apply any unpaid amount against your credit limit. You do not have to pay any questioned amount while we are investigating, but you are still obligated to pay the parts of your bill that are not in question.

If we find that we made a mistake on your statement, you will not have to pay any Finance Charges related to any questioned amount. If we didn't make a mistake, you may have to pay Finance Charges, and you will have to make up any missed payments on the questioned amount. In either case, we will send you a statement of the amount you owe and the date due.

If you fail to pay the amount that we think you owe, we may report you as delinquent. However, if our explanation does not satisfy you and you write to us within ten days telling us that you still refuse to pay, we must tell you the name of anyone we reported you to. We must tell anyone we reported you to that the matter has been settled between us when it finally is.

SPECIAL RULES FOR CREDIT CARD PURCHASES

There are two limitations on this right (a) you must have made the purchase in your home state or, if not within your home state, within 100 miles of your current mailing address, and (b) the purchase price must have been more than $50. - A fixed amount greater than the monthly Minimum Payment.

There are no transfer fees or charges for CCCU pre-authorized payment service.

PAYMENT APPLICATION:

Payment amounts received in excess of Minimum Payment shall be applied to card balances bearing the highest rate of interest and then to each successive balance bearing the next highest rate of interest, until the payment amount is exhausted.

PERIODIC STATEMENT:

We will send you a monthly statement at least 21 days prior to your Payment Due Date (if your account is active) which will indicate your credit limit, statement closing date, previous statement balance, payments, purchases, cash advances, finance charges, new balance, minimum monthly payment and payment due date. In addition, the periodic statement shall include a payment warning that specifies the number of months it would take to pay the balance making only the minimum balance payment, total interest and principal costs associated with paying the balance by making only minimum payments, monthly payment amount to pay the balance in 36 months, and a toll-free number to obtain information on credit counseling. Statements will be deemed correct and accepted by Cardholder(s) unless CCCU is notified to the contrary in writing within 60 days of statement date.

FINANCE CHARGE INTEREST APR:

The Interest Rate used to calculate Finance Charge is a variable rate subject to change with the beginning of your August statement cycle each year and is indexed to the Wall Street Prime as published in the Wall Street Journal for June 30th of each year. A margin rate shall be added to the Prime interest rate that is reflective of your FICO score (see Table 1).

FINANCE CHARGE CALCULATION:*Cash Advances / Balance Transfers:

The finance charge on cash advances, (including automated teller machine (ATM) and convenience check transactions), and balance transfers are calculated according to the following method:

A finance charge will be charged on Cash Advances and Balance Transfers from the date of the transaction or from the first day of the billing cycle in which the transaction is posted to the account (whichever is later). If not paid in full during the same billing cycle as made, the finance charge will accrue on the unpaid balance until the billing cycle Closing Date prior to the date the entire New Balance is paid in full.

If the New Balance indicated on your statement is paid in full by the Payment Due Date, no finance charge will be imposed during the current billing cycle for Cash Advances or Balance Transfers made during the previous billing cycles.

The Finance Charge, for a billing cycle, is computed by multiplying the Monthly Periodic Rate times the average daily Cash Advances or Balance Transfers balance. The average daily outstanding balance is calculated by dividing the sum of the daily balances during the billing cycle by the number of days in the cycle. The daily balance is determined by adding new Cash Advances or Balance Transfers and subtracting payments or credits to the previous day’s balance. Unpaid finance charges are excluded in determining the daily balance.

PURCHASES:

The finance charge on Purchases is calculated according to the following method:

A finance charge will be imposed on Purchases that you obtain through the use of your Card, only if you elect not to pay the entire New Balance by the Payment Due Date shown on your monthly statement. The finance charge will be calculated on the unpaid balance of previous Purchases from the statement closing date and on Purchases made during the current billing cycle from the date of posting to the account. The finance charge will continue to accrue until the closing date of the billing cycle preceding the date on which the entire New Balance is paid in full.

The Finance Charge, for a billing cycle, is computed by multiplying the Monthly Periodic Rate times the average daily Purchases balance. The average daily outstanding balance is calculated by dividing the sum of the daily balances during the billing cycle by the number of days in the cycle. The daily balance is determined by adding new Purchases and subtracting payments and credits to the previous day’s balance. Unpaid finance charges are excluded in determining the daily balance.

DEFAULT:

You will be in default on this Agreement if one or more of the following occur:

- You fail to make a Minimum Payment by the scheduled Payment Due Date.
- You fail to abide by the terms of this Agreement or any other agreement you may have with CCCU.
- Your financial or credit status has changed so that your credit worthiness has been negatively impacted.

In addition, you will be considered in default of this Agreement if:

- Cardholder dies

DEFAULT REMEDIES:

If you are in default, CCCU may take one or more of the following actions:

- Cancel cards
- Accelerate all amounts owed without notice on demand.
- Require past due payment(s) and fees to be paid immediately.
- Take the past due payment(s) and fees from any deposit account in your name.
- Require you to immediately pay all amounts you owe under this Agreement.
- Take the amount owed under this Agreement from any deposit account in your name.

You understand that any remedy applicable under this agreement is extended equally to co-applicant or Guarantor.

If you are in default, you agree to pay all our costs, including attorney’s fees, which we incur in any collection efforts or litigation at the trial, bankruptcy or appellate level to enforce this Agreement and collect the amount owed.

SKIP PAYMENT OPTION:

From time to time, the Credit Union, at its option and terms, may announce an optional feature, which will allow you to skip one or more payments. You understand that periodic finance charges will continue to accrue on your unpaid balance at the applicable Monthly Periodic Rate. At the end of the period, the payment terms of this Agreement will be reinstated automatically without notice.

CHANGE IN TERMS:

You agree that we, at our sole discretion, may change all terms, including annual percentage rates (APRs), line of credit amount, features and fees, any time in accordance with our agreement and applicable law. We may make changes based on information in your credit report, market conditions, business strategies, or for any other reason we may choose. We will provide advanced written notice of a change in terms, as required by law. The address of record, at the time of a change, will be used for such notice.

The applicable APRs for your card account will be determined based on the primary cardholder’s credit score. A credit score is a number based on a statistical analysis of a person’s credit files, which represents the creditworthiness of that person, which is the likelihood that the person will pay their bills. A credit score, known as FICO, is primarily based on credit report information, typically from one of the major credit bureaus. FICO is a credit score developed by Fair Isaac Corporation. We reserve the right to use the FICO score issued by any major credit bureau of our choosing in determining an APR.

A review of the card account and the primary cardholder’s credit history will be conducted during the second quarter of each calendar year. You agree the APRs may be adjusted accordingly based on the credit score acquired. This process could result in an increase or decrease to the total interest paid on the card account. The new APRs will become effective within the quarter following the credit review. The new terms, including any increase or decrease to an APR, will only apply to new cash advances (including ATM and convenience check transactions), balance transfers, and purchases. Existing balance shall remain at the existing APR until paid in full. Refer to Table 1 for FICO matrix.

Cardholders who continue to maintain the same FICO score or score range will not receive a change in terms.

If we make changes to your card account after our annual review, you will receive advance notice, as required by law, and a right to opt out. If you opt out, we will close your card account. You can then pay the remaining balance under the existing rate. Of course, this paragraph does not apply to changes required by law or our regulators.

REVOCAION:

You agree that your CCCU Visa® Platinum credit card is; the property of CCCU, not transferable, and must be surrendered upon demand. We can repossess the card, and revoke all privileges at any time and without notice including, but not limited to, the following conditions:

- A negative impact to your creditworthiness.
- Your CCCU loan account/s is delinquent.
- Your failure to maintain the minimum required balance on your Credit Union Share Account.
- Your failure to satisfy or adhere to the terms and conditions of this Agreement.
- You make false or misleading statements in any credit application or update of credit information.
- If something happens which the Credit Union believes may reduce your ability to repay what you owe.

LATE FEE:

A late fee of $32 will be charged when a payment is not received within two days after the Payment Due Date or the payment was less than the Minimum Payment amount due. The fee will be reflected on your monthly periodic statement.

CREDIT CARD OVERLIMIT ALLOWANCE FEE:

A fee of $19 will be charged, if you have opted to permit authorizations to take your balance up to 110% of your credit limit and authorizations have caused your account balance to exceed $20 over your credit limit. The Credit Card Overlimit Allowance Fee will be charged with each new extension of credit that is over your credit limit.

FOREIGN CURRENCY TRANSACTIONS:

Purchases and cash advances made in foreign currencies will be debited from your account in U.S. dollars. The exchange rate between the transaction currency and the billing currency used for processing international transactions is a rate selected by Visa from a range of rates available in wholesale currency markets for the applicable central processing date, which may vary from the rate Visa itself receives or the government-mandated rate in effect for the applicable central processing date. The exchange rate used on the processing date may differ from the rate that would have been used on the purchase date or cardholder statement posting date.

FOREIGN TRANSACTION FEE:

A fee of 3% of the amount of the transaction, calculated in U.S. dollars, will be imposed on all foreign transactions, including purchases, cash advances, and credits to your account. A foreign transaction is any transaction that you complete or a merchant completes on your card outside of the U.S., Puerto Rico or the U.S. Virgin Islands. The fee amount will appear on your statement directly below the transaction details.
