INTRODUCTION

This is your Account Agreement ("Agreement"). Please read it and keep it for your records. You do not have to sign this Agreement. For new Accounts, it automatically becomes effective on the date you are notified that your Ready Credit Account has been finally approved. Receipt of this Agreement does not constitute approval of your Account.

In this Agreement, the words "you", "your", and "yours" mean each person who applied for this Ready Credit Account ("Account"), both individually and (when there is more than one applicant) jointly. The words "we", "us", "our" and "Citibank" mean Citibank, N. A.

SPANISH LANGUAGE PREFERENCE

This section applies if you select Spanish as your preferential language of communication with Citibank. This preference may not be available at all Citibank Branches.

Account Agreement and Disclosure. You will receive for your convenience a Spanish translation along with the English Account Agreement and Disclosure. While we have made every effort to ensure that the Spanish translation is correct, it may vary from the English. Therefore, the English version will govern your account. Please keep the official English Account Agreement and Disclosure and Spanish translation for your records.

Account Communications. Your billing statement will be in Spanish. An English copy is available upon request. You may receive notices and communications about your account from us written only in English.

Availability of Products and Services in Spanish. Some products and services provided by Citibank may be available only in English with English documents.

PROMISE TO PAY

You promise to pay the total of all sums advanced to you by using your Account as permitted herein ("loans"), Interest Charges, and any other charges other than Interest Charges according to the terms of this Agreement.

SECURITY

As security for the prompt payment of all your obligations ("Obligations") arising pursuant to this Account, whether these Obligations exist now or in the future, you pledge, grant, and assign to us all of your right, title and interest in the Certificate of Deposit ("CD") account identified on Page 1 of this Agreement. You authorize us at any time(s) to withdraw any funds in the CD and apply them to reduce your Obligations. You also authorize us to rollover the CD if it matures so long as the Account is open and/or there is an outstanding balance on the Account. Your CD must have a term of at least 12 months to be eligible as security for this Account.

LOANS

You can borrow money from your Account by writing Ready Credit checks we give you for this Account or by borrowing money against your Account in other ways that we authorize for obtaining money under this Agreement.

CREDIT LIMIT

You agree not to borrow more money from your Account than is available under your credit limit. Your credit limit is equal to 95% of the balance of the CD account in which you have granted us a security interest. The minimum size CD account eligible as security is $500 and the maximum credit limit is $25,000, no matter how large the related CD account (exceptions may be granted on a case-by-case basis) We are not obligated to pay any Ready Credit check or make additional loans to you on your Account if your Account balance is above your credit limit or paying the check or other loan request would make your Account balance go above your credit limit. However, if we do, the check or loan request will be subject to the terms of this Agreement. You will pay any amount over your credit limit immediately at our request.

We reserve the right to decrease or increase your credit limit at any time by giving you written notice. If we offer you an increase in your maximum credit line, your use of any of the increased credit will mean that you have accepted our offer, and the terms of this Agreement will extend to the full amount offered.

INTEREST CHARGE

Interest Charges will be assessed on your Account for any billing period by applying the Daily Periodic Rate for the billing period to the "Average Daily Balance", as defined below, on your Account and multiplying the result by the number of days in the billing period. Interest Charges are totaled at the end of each billing period and disclosed on your current billing statement as "Interest Charge". The Daily Periodic Rate and the corresponding Annual Percentage Rate are shown on Page 1 of this Agreement.

Your billing statement will disclose a "Balance Subject to Interest Rate". This is the Average Daily Balance for the billing period. The Average Daily Balance is determined by totaling the Daily Principal Balance of your Account at the close of each day of the billing period and dividing the total by the number of days in the billing period.

The Daily Principal Balance of your Account reflects payments and other credits, loans and other charges posted to your Account on each day of the billing period. The Daily Principal Balance does not include any unpaid Interest Charges and does not include Annual Fees, or other charges other than Interest Charges (described below), added to your Account that billing period.

Interest Charges are assessed on loans and other debits beginning on the day we pay your check or otherwise make funds available to you through your Account. Charges other than Interest Charges not previously billed, and accrued and unpaid Interest Charges are excluded from the outstanding balance on which the periodic Interest Charge is calculated. However, charges other than Interest Charges not paid when billed may be added to the outstanding balance of your Account on which the periodic Interest Charge is calculated.

VARIABLE RATE FEATURE

Your Account has a variable rate feature, and the Annual Percentage Rate will be determined and will vary based upon an Index plus the Rate Margin. If the Index or the Rate Margin increases, the Daily Periodic Rate and the Annual Percentage Rate will increase, and your monthly Minimum Payment Due may increase. If the Index or the Rate Margin decreases, the Daily Periodic Rate and the Annual Percentage Rate will decrease, and your monthly Minimum Payment Due may decrease. The "Daily Periodic Rate" for each day in the billing period is determined by dividing the Annual Percentage Rate for the Account by 365, except in leap years it will be divided by 366.

The Index shall be the prime rate of interest as published in the Money Rates Section of The Wall Street Journal on the first Secured Ready Credit Account Agreement and Disclosure (TX) Eng effective March 1 business day of each month, regardless of when such rates were quoted by the Commercial Banks to The Wall Street Journal. In the event more than one prime rate is published by The Wall Street Journal for any applicable day, the highest rate published shall apply.

The Index so determined shall be effective for any billing period that ends on or after the first calendar day of the following month.

The Rate Margin is the percentage amount, added to each Index figure to arrive at the Annual Percentage Rate and the Daily Periodic Rate. Your Rate Margin will be the Rate Margin for Regular Pricing disclosed on Page 1 of this Agreement. However, if you have elected to use Citibank Auto Deduct to automatically pay the monthly Minimum Payment Due on your Account from your Citibank checking or other authorized Citibank account then your Rate Margin will be the Citibank Auto Deduct Rate Margin also disclosed on Page 1 of this Agreement.

The Annual Percentage Rates currently in effect, and any subsequent changes to them, will appear on your billing statement. Any changes in your Annual Percentage Rate will apply to all outstanding balances as permitted by applicable law.

Penalty (Default) Pricing – Your Annual Percentage Rate may also vary if you default under this Agreement because you fail to make payments to us. In the event your Account becomes 60 days past due we may increase your Annual Percentage Rate by increasing your Rate Margin to the Penalty (Default) Pricing Rate Margin for Regular Pricing as disclosed on Page 1 of this Agreement. Or, if you have elected to use Citibank Auto Deduct to automatically pay the monthly Minimum Payment Due on your account from your Citibank checking or other authorized Citibank account, we may increase your Rate Margin to the Citibank Auto Deduct Penalty (Default) Pricing Rate Margin also disclosed on Page 1 of this Agreement.

Any Default Pricing will take effect after we send you any notice required by applicable law. Your Account will become eligible for the lower non Penalty (Default) Pricing Rate Margin (either the Rate Margin for Regular Pricing or the Citibank Auto Deduct Rate Margin) used to compute your Annual Percentage Rate after you have made six consecutive Minimum Payments by the due date shown on the applicable billing statement, beginning with the first payment due following the effective date of the rate increase.

CHARGES OTHER THAN INTEREST CHARGES

The following charges may be added to the balance of your Account if they are not paid when billed. They are nonrefundable. You will owe them once they are billed or charged to your Account even if your Account is subsequently closed, suspended or terminated for any reason.

Annual Membership Fee: You will be charged a nonrefundable annual Membership Fee of $25. The annual Membership Fee may be billed in the month that you open your Account, and annually thereafter, whether or not you use your account.

Late Charge: Unless we receive your Minimum Payment Due within 10 days of the payment due date as stated on your billing statement, you agree to pay a Late Charge of $25 however, the Late Charge will never exceed your Minimum Payment Due.

BILLING

We will send you a billing statement for each monthly billing period when there is a debit or credit balance of more than $1.00, or when An Interest Charge has been imposed. The billing statement will reflect transactions in your Account and your New Balance. You can pay the New Balance in full or defer payment, in which case you must pay the Minimum Amount Due. All payments must be received by the payment due date, as shown on your billing statement. We will not make a loan under this Agreement to make a minimum Payment.

MINIMUM PAYMENT DUE

You agree that before the payment due date shown on your billing statement you will pay at least the Minimum Payment Due as shown on the billing statement. The Minimum Payment Due for a billing period includes the following amounts:

- The unpaid balance of the Account at the close of the billing period divided by 60.
- Interest Charges that accrued during the billing period; and
- Charges other than Interest Charges added to your Account during the billing period.

If the sum of these three items is less than $20.00, your Minimum Payment Due will be $20.00 or the total balance owed on your Account, whichever is less. In addition, the Minimum Payment Due will include the sum of any amounts past due and any amounts over your credit limit that we have requested that you pay immediately.

There may be a delay of up to five days in crediting a payment if it is received at an address other than the address provided on the billing statement or if the payment is not made in accordance with any of our other instructions. If you make a payment with a check, we will credit it to your Account upon receipt. However, your available credit may not reflect the payment until your check has cleared. You may not make payments with a Ready Credit check or with a check drawn against a business account.

You may prepay your Account balance in full or in part at any time without penalty.

We reserve the right to determine the manner in which any payments on your Account will be applied subject to applicable laws and regulations.

ARBITRATION

RESOLUTION OF DISPUTES BY ARBITRATION: THIS SECTION CONTAINS IMPORTANT INFORMATION REGARDING YOUR READY CREDIT ACCOUNT AND THE SERVICES RELATED THERETO. IT PROVIDES THAT EITHER YOU OR WE CAN REQUIRE THAT ANY DISPUTES BE RESOLVED BY BINDING ARBITRATION. ARBITRATION REPLACES THE RIGHT TO GO TO COURT, INCLUDING THE RIGHT TO A JURY TRIAL AND THE RIGHT TO PARTICIPATE IN A CLASS ACTION OR SIMILAR PROCEEDING. IN ARBITRATION, THE DISPUTE IS SUBMITTED TO A NEUTRAL PARTY, AN ARBITRATOR, INSTEAD OF A JUDGE OR JURY. ARBITRATION PROCEDURES ARE SIMPLER AND MORE LIMITED THAN RULES APPLICABLE IN COURT.

Agreement to Arbitrate Disputes. Either you or Citibank may elect, without the other's consent, to require that any dispute between us concerning your Citibank deposit, Checking Plus, Checking Plus (variable rate), Custom Credit Line or Ready Credit accounts, except those disputes specifically excluded below, be resolved by binding arbitration.

Disputes Covered by Arbitration. Any claim relating to or arising out of your Citibank deposit, Custom Credit Line, Ready Credit, Checking Plus, or Checking Plus (variable rate) account, or our relationship, will be subject to arbitration. All disputes are subject to arbitration, no matter what legal theory they are based on, or what remedy (damages, or injunctive or declaratory relief) they seek. Disputes include any unresolved claims concerning any services relating to such account, including, without limitation, safe deposit box services, wire transfer services, and use of a Citibank® Banking Card or Citibank® Banking Card displaying the MasterCard logo. Disputes include not only claims made directly by you, but also made by anyone connected with you or claiming through you, such as a joint account holder, account beneficiary, employee representative, agent, predecessor, or successor, heir, assignee, or trustee in bankruptcy. Disputes include not only claims that relate directly to Citibank, but also its parent, affiliates, successors, assignees, employees, and agents, and claims for which we may be directly or indirectly liable, even if we are not properly named at the time the claim is made. Disputes include claims based on any theory of law, contract, statute, regulation, tort (including fraud or any intentional tort), or any other legal or equitable ground, and include claims asserted as counterclaims, cross-claims, third-party claims, interpleaders or otherwise; and claims made independently or with other claims. A party who initiates a proceeding in court may elect arbitration with respect to any dispute advanced in that proceeding by any other party. Disputes include claims made as part of a class action, private attorney general, or other representative action, it being expressly understood and agreed to that the arbitration of such claims must proceed on an individual (non-class, non-representative) basis. And the arbitrator may award relief only on an individual (non-class, non-representative) basis. Disputes also include claims relating to the enforceability or interpretation of any of these arbitration provisions. Any questions about whether disputes are subject to arbitration shall be resolved by interpreting this arbitration provision in the broadest way the law will allow it to be enforced.

Disputes Excluded from Arbitration. Disputes filed by you or by us individually in a small claims court are not subject to arbitration, so long as the disputes remain in such court and advances only an individual (non-class, non-representative) claim for relief.

Commencing an Arbitration. The arbitration must be filed with one of the following neutral arbitration forums and follow its rules and procedures for initiating and pursuing an arbitration: American Arbitration Association or JAMS. If you initiate the arbitration, you must notify us in writing at Citibank, Litigation/Arbitration Unit, One Court Square, 43rd Floor/Zone 10, Long Island City, NY 11120. If we initiate the arbitration, we will notify you in writing at your last known address on file. You may obtain a copy of the arbitration rules for these forums, as well as additional information about initiating an arbitration by contacting these arbitration forums:

American Arbitration Association
800-778-7879 (toll-free)
Website: www.adr.org

JAMS
1-800-352-5267 (toll-free)
Website: www.jamsadr.com

The arbitration shall be conducted in the same city as the U.S. District Court closest to your home address, unless the parties agree to a different location in writing.

Administration of Arbitration. The arbitration shall be decided by a single neutral arbitrator. The arbitrator will be either a lawyer with at least ten years experience or a retired or former judge selected in accordance with the rules of the arbitration forum. The arbitrator shall follow procedures and rules of the arbitration forum in effect on the date the arbitration is filed unless those rules and procedures are inconsistent with this arbitration provision, in which case this arbitration provision will prevail. Those provisions and rules may limit the discovery available to you or us. The arbitrator will take reasonable steps to protect customer account information and other confidential information if requested to do so by you or by us. The arbitrator shall decide the dispute in accordance with applicable substantive law consistent with the Federal Arbitration Act and applicable statutes of limitations, will honor claims of privilege recognized at law, and will be empowered to award any damages or other relief provided for under applicable law. The arbitrator will not have the power to award relief to, or against, any person who is not a party to the arbitration. An award in arbitration shall determine the rights and obligations between the named parties only, and only in respect of the claims in arbitration, and shall not have any bearing on the rights and obligations of any other person, or on the resolution of any other dispute. You or we may choose to have a hearing and be represented by counsel. The decision rendered by the arbitrator shall be in writing; however, the arbitrator need not provide a statement of his reasons unless one is requested by you or us.

Costs. The party initiating the arbitration shall pay the initial filing fee. If you file the arbitration and an award is rendered in your favor, we will reimburse you for your filing fee. If there is a hearing, we will pay the fees and costs for the first day of that hearing. All other fees and costs will be allocated in accordance with the rules of the arbitration forum. However, we will advance or reimburse filing and other fees if the arbitrator rules that you cannot afford to pay them or finds other good cause for requiring us to do so, or if you ask us and we determine there is good reason for doing so. Each party shall bear the expense of their respective attorneys, experts, and witnesses and other expenses, regardless of who prevails, but a party may recover any or all expenses from another party if the arbitrator, applying applicable law, so determines.

No Class Action or Joinder of Parties. You and we agree that no class action, private attorney general or other representative claims may be pursued in arbitration, nor may such action be pursued in court if either you or we elect arbitration. Unless mutually agreed to by you and us, claims of two or more persons may not be joined, consolidated, or otherwise brought together in the same arbitration (unless those persons are joint account holders or beneficiaries on your account and/or related accounts, or parties to a single transaction or related transaction); this is so whether or not the claim may have been assigned.

Right to Resort to Provisional Remedies Preserved. Nothing herein shall be deemed to limit or constrain our right to resort to self-help remedies, such as the right of set-off or the right to restrain funds in an account, to interplead funds in the event of a dispute, to exercise any security interest or lien we may hold in property, or to comply with legal process, or to obtain provisional remedies such as injunctive relief, attachment, or garnishment by a court having appropriate jurisdiction; provided, however, that you or we may elect to arbitrate any dispute related to such provisional remedies.

Arbitration Award. The arbitrator's award shall be final and binding unless a party appeals it in writing to the arbitration forum within fifteen days of notice of the award. The appeal must request a new arbitration before a panel of three neutral arbitrators selected in accordance with the rules of the same arbitration forum. The panel will consider all factual and legal issues anew, follow the same rules that apply to a proceeding using a single arbitrator, and make decisions based on the vote of the majority. Costs will be allocated in the same way they are allocated before a single arbitrator. An award by a panel is final and binding on the parties after fifteen days has passed. A final and binding award is subject to judicial intervention or review only to the extent allowed under the Federal Arbitration Act or other applicable law. A party may seek to have a final and binding award entered as a judgment in any court having jurisdiction.

Governing Law. You and we agree that our relationship includes transactions involving interstate commerce and that these arbitration provisions are governed by, and enforceable under, the Federal Arbitration Act. To the extent state law is applicable, the laws of the state governing your account relationship apply.

Severability, Survival. These arbitration provisions shall survive (i) termination or changes to your deposit, Checking Plus, Checking Plus (variable rate), or Ready Credit accounts, or any related services we provide; (ii) the bankruptcy of any party; and (iii) the transfer or assignment of your deposit, Checking Plus, Checking Plus (variable rate), Custom Credit Line or Ready Credit accounts, or any related services we provide. If any portion of this arbitration provision is deemed invalid or unenforceable, the entire arbitration provision shall not remain in force. No portion of this arbitration provision may be amended, severed, or waived absent a written agreement between you and us.

JOINT ACCOUNTS

If this is a joint account, each of you will be jointly and individually liable for the obligations in this Agreement. Upon request by any party to the Account or upon receipt of inconsistent instructions, we may, at our sole option and without notice to any other party, refuse to pay any Ready Credit check or loan request, refuse any other request with respect to the Account, or cancel the Account. Any change in terms can be sent to, and accepted by, any one of you.

SEVERABILITY

Except as otherwise provided herein, should any provision of this Agreement be determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or unenforceable under any law, rule or regulation, that determination will not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision of this Agreement.

Your Billing Rights: Keep This Document For Future Use

This notice tells you about your rights and our responsibilities under the Fair Credit Billing Act.

What To Do If You Find A Mistake On Your Statement

If you think there is an error on your statement, write to us at the address listed on your statement. In your letter, give us the following information:

- Account Information: Your name and account number.
- Dollar amount: The dollar amount of the suspected error.
- Description of problem: If you think there is an error on your bill, describe what you believe is wrong and why you believe it is a mistake.

You must contact us:

- Within 60 days after the error appeared on your statement.
- At least 3 business days before an automated payment is scheduled, if you want to stop payment on the amount you think is wrong

You must notify us of any potential errors in writing. You may call or e-mail us, but if you do we are not required to investigate any potential errors and you may have to pay the amount in question.

What Will Happen After We Receive Your Letter

When we receive your letter, we must do two things:

1. Within 30 days of receiving your letter, we must tell you that we received your letter. We will also tell you if we have already corrected the error.

2. Within 90 days of receiving your letter, we must either correct the error or explain to you why we believe the bill is correct.

While we investigate whether or not there has been an error:

- We cannot try to collect the amount in question, or report you as delinquent on that amount.
- The charge in question may remain on your statement, and we may continue to charge you interest on that amount.
- While you do not have to pay the amount in question, you are responsible for the remainder of your balance.
- We can apply any unpaid amount against your credit limit.

After we finish our investigation, one of two things will happen:

- If we made a mistake: You will not have to pay the amount in question or any interest or other fees related to that amount.
- If we do not believe there was a mistake: You will have to pay the amount in question, along with applicable interest and fees. We will send you a statement of the amount you owe and the date payment is due. We may then report you as delinquent if you do not pay the amount we think you owe.

If you receive our explanation but still believe your bill is wrong, you must write to us within 10 days telling us that you still refuse to pay. If you do so, we cannot report you as delinquent without also reporting that you are questioning your bill. We must tell you the name of anyone whom we reported you as delinquent, and we must let those organizations know when the matter has been settled between us.

If we do not follow all of the rules above, you do not have to pay the first $50 of the amount you question even if your bill is correct.
