From and after the date of this Agreement, each party (the "Indemnifying Party") shall indemnify, defend and hold the other party (the "Indemnified Party"), all its corporate parents, subsidiaries and Affiliates and all of its and their employees, subcontractors, agents, officers, directors and shareholders harmless against: (a) any and all out-of-pocket expenses or losses, liabilities, damages, costs or other expenses or claims or counterclaims of third persons or entities related or attributable to (i) the Indemnifying Party's or its agent's or employee's violation (or act causing the other party to be in violation) of any state or federal law or regulation, or such parties' willful misconduct; (ii) the Indemnifying Party's breach of any covenant, representation or warranty made by the Indemnifying Party in this Agreement; (iii) any material misrepresentation of Indemnifying Party in this Agreement or any material misrepresentation in or omission from any document, certificate or information furnished or to be furnished by Indemnifying Party under this Agreement; and (iv) any products or services offered, provided, manufactured, marketed, distributed, advertised, promoted or issued by or on behalf of Indemnifying Party (including without limitation the Organization Cards) or based upon use of the Licensed Marks by or on behalf of Indemnifying Party; (b) any losses due to any fraudulent activity on the part of any employee or agent of Indemnifying Party; (c) any claims brought by any Indemnified Party's customer, Cardholder, employee or other third party based upon Indemnifying Party's failure to make any payment to such customer, Cardholder, employee or other third party; (d) any claims by a third party related to the wrongful provision to the Indemnified Party of such third party's confidential information; and (e) any and all actions, suits, proceedings, demands, assessments, judgments, costs and expenses, and any reasonable attorneys' fees, consultant's fees or court costs incident to any of the foregoing, except for any loss due to the gross negligence or willful misconduct of the Indemnified Party or its agents or employees.

7.2 Indemnification Procedures. The Indemnified Party will notify the Indemnifying Party in a reasonably prompt manner of any claim that is asserted and each action or suit that is filed or served (any of the foregoing being a "Claim") for which the Indemnified Party is seeking indemnification pursuant to this Article 7. The Indemnifying Party may thereafter assume control of such Claim, provided, that the Indemnified Party will have the right to participate in the defense or settlement of such Claim. Neither the Indemnifying Party nor the Indemnified Party may settle such Claim or consent to any judgment with respect thereto without the consent of the other party hereto (which consent may not be unreasonably withheld or delayed). The Indemnified Party will provide the Indemnifying Party with a reasonable amount of assistance in connection with defending or settling any such Claim.

8. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY; INJUNCTIVE RELIEF.

8.1 Limitation of Liability. In no event shall either party or any of its directors, officers, employees, licensors, suppliers or other representatives be liable for any indirect, special or consequential damages, or damages for loss of profits, business interruption, or loss of goodwill arising from or relating to this Agreement or the Licensed Marks or U.S. Bank Marks (as the case may be), even if such party is expressly advised of the possibility of such damages, except in the case of gross negligence or willful misconduct. The parties agree that notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, in no event shall the aggregate liability of either party or any of its directors, officers, employees, licensors, suppliers or other representatives, exceed $100,000. The foregoing limitations of liability and exclusion of certain damages shall apply regardless of the failure of the essential purpose of any remedies available to either party.

8.2 Injunctive Relief. Each party agrees that a breach of its obligations under this Agreement, including, without limitation, its obligations set forth in Sections 2.8.2, and Articles 3, 4 and 9 would cause the other party irreparable damage. Accordingly, each party agrees that in the event of such breach or threatened breach, in addition to remedies at law, the party alleging breach shall have the right to injunctive or other equitable relief to prevent the breaching party's violations of its obligations hereunder, and hereby consents to the entry of temporary restraints, a preliminary injunction, a permanent injunction and such other equitable relief as the court may deem appropriate.

9. CONFIDENTIALITY.

9.1 Confidential Information. Each party (as "Recipient") may have access to and each party (as "Owner") may provide to the other party, information that the Owner regards as confidential or proprietary. "Confidential Information" includes information of a commercial, proprietary or technical nature and, with respect to U.S. Bank, information related to U.S. Bank's consumer customers. Confidential Information includes (including pursuant to an appropriate discovery request in a proceeding as determined by counsel to the Owner), but is not limited to, the following, whether now in existence or hereafter created:

- (a) Mailing Lists; and

(b) Any and all information of or about U.S. Bank's customers, including Cardholders, of any nature whatsoever, and specifically including without limitation, the fact that someone is a customer or prospective customer of U.S. Bank, all lists of customers, former customers, applicants and prospective customers and all personal or financial information relating to and identified with such persons ("Customer Information"); and

(c) All information protected by rights embodied in copyrights, whether registered or unregistered (including all derivative works), patents or pending patent applications, "know how," trade secrets, and any other intellectual property rights of the Owner or Owner's licensors; and

(d) All business, financial or technical information of the Owner and any of the Owner's vendors (including, but not limited to account numbers, and software licensed from third parties or owned by the Owner or its affiliates); and

(e) Owner's marketing philosophy and objectives, promotions, markets, materials, financial results, technological developments and other similar proprietary information and materials; and

(f) All information marked as "confidential" or similarly marked, or information that the Recipient should, in the exercise of reasonable business judgment, recognize as confidential; and

(g) Information with respect to employees of U.S. Bank which is non-public, confidential, business related, or proprietary in nature, including, without limitation, names of employees, the employees' positions within U.S. Bank company, the fact that they are employees of U.S. Bank, contact information for employees, personal employee identification numbers, and any other information released to you regarding employees in the past and in the future; and

(h) All notes, memoranda, analyses, compilations, studies and other documents, whether prepared by the Owner, the Recipient or others, which contain or otherwise reflect Confidential Information.

9.2 Exceptions. Except for Customer Information, the term "Confidential Information" excludes any portion of such information that Recipient can establish by clear and convincing evidence to have: (a) been publicly known without breach of this Agreement; or (b) been known by Recipient without any obligation of confidentiality, prior to disclosure of such Confidential Information; or (c) been received in good faith from a third-party source that to Recipient's reasonable knowledge rightfully disclosed such information; or (d) been developed independently by Recipient without reference to the Owner's Confidential Information. If Recipient is required by a court or governmental agency having proper jurisdiction to disclose any Confidential Information (including pursuant to an appropriate discovery request in a proceeding as determined by counsel to the Owner), Recipient must promptly provide to the Owner notice of such request to enable the Owner to seek an appropriate protective order.

9.3 Limited Use. Confidential Information must be held in confidence and disclosed only to those employees or agents whose duties reasonably require access to such information. Recipient may use the Confidential Information only as necessary for Recipient's performance hereunder or pursuant to rights granted herein and for no other purpose. Recipient must protect the Owner's Confidential Information using at least the same degree of care, but no less than a reasonable degree of care, to prevent the unauthorized use, disclosure or duplication (except as required for backup systems) of such Confidential Information as Recipient uses to protect its own confidential information of a similar nature. Recipient's limited right to use the Confidential Information expires upon expiration or termination of this Agreement for any reason. Recipient's obligations of confidentiality and non-disclosure survive termination or expiration for any reason of this Agreement.

9.4 Data Security; Audit Rights. Each party must establish and maintain data security policies and procedures designed to ensure the following: (a) security and confidentiality of Customer Information; and (b) protection against anticipated threats or hazards to the security or integrity of Customer Information; and (c) protection against the unauthorized access or use of Customer Information. Organization must permit U.S. Bank to monitor and/or audit Organization's compliance with this Section during regular business hours upon not less than forty-eight (48) hours' notice to Organization and to provide to U.S. Bank copies of audits and system test results acquired by Organization in relation to the data security policies and procedures designed to meet the requirements set forth above.

9.5 Return or Destruction. Recipient is required to develop appropriate security measures for the proper disposal and destruction of Confidential Information. Upon expiration of Recipient's limited right to use the Confidential Information, Recipient must return all physical embodiments thereof to Owner or, with Owner's permission, Recipient may destroy the Confidential Information. Recipient shall provide written certification to Owner that Recipient has returned, or destroyed, all such Confidential Information in Recipient's possession. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Recipient may retain one archival copy of Confidential Information, which may be used solely to demonstrate compliance with the provisions of this Section.

9.6 Disclosure to Third Parties. If disclosure of Confidential Information to third parties is required or allowed under this Agreement, Recipient must ensure that such third parties have express obligations of confidentiality and non-disclosure substantially similar to Recipient's obligations hereunder. Liability for damages because of disclosure of Confidential Information by any such third parties must be borne by Recipient. If Recipient or any of its representatives or agents breaches the covenants set forth in this Agreement, irreparable injury may result to the Owner or third parties entrusting Confidential Information to the Owner. Therefore, the Owner's remedies at law may be inadequate and the Owner shall be entitled to seek an injunction to restrain any continuing breach. Notwithstanding any limitation on Recipient's liability, the Owner shall further be entitled any other rights and remedies that it may have at law or in equity.

9.7 Agreement Terms. Without the prior written consent of the other party and except as necessary to enforce this Agreement or obtain damages or other relief hereunder, no party will disclose to any third party (other than under the types of circumstances that permit disclosure of Confidential Information pursuant to this Article 10) the terms or conditions of this Agreement or any amendments, supplements or modifications hereto.

9.8 Security Breach Requirements. If there is any actual or suspected theft of, accidental disclosure of, loss of, or inability to account for any of the other party's Confidential Information by either party or its subcontractors and/or any unauthorized intrusions into facilities or secure systems of either party or its subcontractors (individually or collectively, "Security Breach") the party who has experienced the Security Breach (the "Affected Party") must immediately (a) notify the other party, (b) estimate the Security Breach's effect, (c) specify the corrective action to be taken, and (d) investigate and determine if a Security Breach has occurred. If, based upon an investigation, the Affected Party determines that there has been an actual Security Breach, such party must promptly notify the other party, must promptly investigate the scope of the Security Breach, and must promptly take corrective action to prevent further Security Breach. The Affected Party must, as soon as is reasonably practicable, make a report to the other party including details of the Security Breach (including Cardholder(s)' identities and the nature of the information disclosed) and the corrective action taken to prevent further Security Breach. The Affected Party must cooperate fully with the other party to notify affected individuals as to the fact of and the circumstances of the Security Breach. Additionally, the Affected Party must cooperate fully with all government regulatory agencies and/or law enforcement agencies having jurisdiction and authority for investigating a Security Breach and/or any known or suspected criminal activity.

10. WARRANTIES AND REPRESENTATIONS.

U.S. Bank and Organization represent and warrant to each other as follows as to itself: (a) it has the full power and authority to enter into this Agreement and to carry out its obligations hereunder; (b) the individual signing this Agreement on its behalf is duly authorized to do so; (c) the execution and performance of this Agreement by it will not violate its organizational documents or bylaws or any material contract or other instrument to which it is a party or by which it is bound; (d) it has all authority to disclose to the other any Confidential Information provided pursuant to the terms of this Agreement; and (e) it or one of its Affiliates is the owner of, or otherwise has the right to provide, any information provided to the other party pursuant to this Agreement (including, without limitation with respect to Organization, the Mailing Lists).

11.5 Successors and Assigns. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties' respective successors and assigns.

11.6 Amendment and Waiver. No failure by either party to insist upon strict performance of any term or obligation set forth in this Agreement or to exercise any right or remedy under this Agreement, nor acceptance of full or partial performance during continuance of a default, shall constitute a waiver of any such term, obligation, right or remedy, or a waiver of any such default, by the party entitled to rely upon such term or performance of such obligation, to assert such right or remedy, or to act upon such default. No modification, course of conduct, amendment, supplement to, or waiver of this Agreement or any provisions hereof shall be binding upon the parties unless made in writing and duly signed by both parties.

11.7 Severability. Should any provision of this Agreement contravene any law, or valid regulation or rule of any regulatory agency having jurisdiction over either party hereto or should any provision of this Agreement otherwise be held invalid or unenforceable by a court or other body of competent jurisdiction, then each such provision shall be automatically terminated and performance thereof by both parties waived, and all other provisions of this Agreement shall nevertheless remain in full force and effect.

11.8 Compliance with National Association Regulations. In connection with its performance hereunder, U.S. Bank will comply with applicable National Association regulations as in effect from time to time. In such case, the party making such determination may, at its option, notify the "breaching" party in writing of the occurrence and nature of such breach. In such case, the parties will work together in a good faith effort to resolve any issues relating to the alleged immaterial breach.
