ORDER SCHEDULING ORAL ARGUMENT

The Respondents and Enforcement Counsel have filed Appeal Briefs, appealing from the Recommended Decision in this case, and both parties have requested oral argument. Accordingly, I have determined to conduct oral argument in this appeal on Monday, March 9, 2015, at the Securities and Exchange Commission's headquarters building, 100 F Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20549, in Hearing Room 2 at 3 p.m. Each side will be allotted thirty minutes to present its argument. By March 2, 2015, each side shall provide to the Bureau's Office of Administrative Adjudication the name of the attorney who will argue. Respondents will open the argument and will be permitted to reserve up to 10 minutes for rebuttal. The argument will be open to the public and the parties will confine their presentations to matters that are on the public record of this case.

If either party wishes to provide the Bureau with a short (no more than 300 pages in length) compilation of material to facilitate its presentation during the oral argument, any such compilation must be submitted to the Office of Administrative Adjudication, and served on the opposing party, by 5 p.m. on March 2, 2015. In addition to electronic service, four paper copies of the compilation must simultaneously be provided to the Office of Administrative Adjudication. The compilation may contain only public information that is already in the record of this case.

SO ORDERED.
