On February 20, 2015, Enforcement Counsel filed its Reply Brief in Support of Its Appeal. Document 221. Subsequently, pursuant to Paragraph 4(d) of the Protective Order, Radian Guaranty Inc. requested that certain information in Enforcement's Reply Brief be redacted. Enforcement discussed the request with Radian, and submitted a redacted version of its Reply Brief on February 26, 2015. I have treated Radian's request as if it were a motion. On March 3, I ordered Radian and Enforcement to submit statements explaining whether the Reply Brief should be redacted. Document 222.

I have now received and considered those statements. I have determined that, in compliance with the Protective Order, the information Radian seeks to have redacted was previously placed on the public record. As a result, the Protective Order does not prevent it from being placed on the public record a second time. Document 48, ¶ 16. Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED that Radian's motion is denied, and Enforcement's Reply Brief may be put on the public record without redactions.

SO ORDERED.
