RESPONDENTS' REPLY IN SUPPORT OF THEIR MOTION FOR LEAVE TO AMEND RESPONDENTS' LIST OF CONTROVERTED ISSUES OF FACT

Respondents believe that the Bureau's proposed stipulations at issue here constitute an individual's financial information (or that could reasonably lead to an individual's financial information) and are inappropriate for public filing. Since Respondents believe that such information is more appropriately filed under seal, they seek leave of the Court to amend their filing pending renewed negotiations between the parties regarding the scope of the protective order in this case.

The Joint Stipulated Motion for a Protective Order contemplated that the parties would work "to negotiate an amendment governing the treatment of James R. Carnes's personal financial information." Despite the passing of the March 1 benchmark contained in the stipulated motion, Respondents believe that it remains appropriate for the parties to work to negotiate such an amendment and determine how it should cover the potential disclosure of personal financial information. Pending negotiations with Enforcement Counsel, Respondents ask that the proposed stipulations of fact at issue be allowed to remain under seal.

For the reasons stated above and in Respondents' motion, Respondents respectfully request that the Court grant leave to amend Respondents' List of Controverted Issues of Fact.

Respectfully submitted,

Dated: April 14, 2016
