1. Complaint volume

The Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB) is the first federal agency solely focused on consumer financial protection,¹ and consumer complaints² are an integral part of that work. The CFPB's Office of Consumer Response hears directly from consumers about the challenges they face in the marketplace, brings their concerns to the attention of companies, and assists in addressing their complaints. This Monthly Complaint Report provides a high-level snapshot of trends in consumer complaints.

The Monthly Complaint Report uses a three-month rolling average, comparing the current average to the same period in the prior year where appropriate, to account for monthly and seasonal fluctuations. In some cases, we use month-to-month comparisons to highlight more immediate trends. For company-level complaint data, we use a three-month rolling average of complaints sent to companies for response. This company-level complaint data lags other complaint data in this report by two months to reflect the 60 days companies have to respond to complaints, confirming a commercial relationship with the consumer. This is consistent with complaints found in the public Consumer Complaint Database.³

¹ The Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act of 2010, Pub. L. No. 111-203 ("Dodd-Frank Act") created the CFPB to protect consumers of financial products or services and to encourage the fair and competitive operation of consumer financial markets.

² Consumer complaints are submissions that express dissatisfaction with, or communicate suspicion of wrongful conduct by, an identifiable entity related to a consumer's personal experience with a financial product or service.

³ This report is based on dynamic data and may slightly differ from other public reports. Company-level information should be considered in context of company size and/or market share. Complaints referred to other regulators, such as complaints about depository institutions with less than $10 billion in assets, are not published in the Consumer Complaint Database.

Visit consumerfinance.gov/complaint to learn about how we handle complaints or to submit a complaint. Visit our Consumer Complaint Database at consumerfinance.gov/complaintdatabase to search, sort, filter, and export complaints.

1.1 Complaint volume by product

As of October 1, 2016, the CFPB has handled approximately 1,008,500 complaints, including approximately 26,400 complaints in September 2016. Table 1 shows the percentage change in complaint volume by product, comparing July - September 2015 with July - September 2016.⁴

TABLE 1: CHANGE IN COMPLAINT VOLUME

	% change	3 month average: Jul - Sep 2015	3 month average: Jul - Sep 2016
Student loan	96%	638	1,248
Bank account or service	37%	1,982	2,717
Credit card	27%	1,946	2,479
Prepaid	18%	182	215
Consumer loan	10%	1,312	1,437
Debt collection	5%	7,464	7,830

Credit reporting	-11%	5,605	4,970
Payday loan	-21%	458	363
Total	5%	24,845	26,134

⁴ Complaint totals include all complaints with product breakdowns focusing on the most-complained-about consumer financial products and services.

- Student loan complaints showed the greatest percentage increase from July - September 2015 (638 complaints) to July - September 2016 (1,248 complaints), representing about a 96 percent increase.
- Payday loan complaints showed the greatest percentage decrease from July - September 2015 (458 complaints) to July - September 2016 (363 complaints), representing about a 21 percent decline.

Table 2 shows the complaint volume this month by product. The graphic at the end of each row under the heading “Monthly complaints” shows the volume trend from when the CFPB began accepting complaints about that product (green dot) to the current month (blue dot). The monthly average reflects complaints handled per month since we began accepting those complaints.⁵

⁵ The CFPB has used a phased-in approach to expand its complaint handling over time to include multiple products and services under its authority. Complaint-handling capacity was expanded as follows: credit card complaints on July 21, 2011, mortgage complaints on December 1, 2011, bank accounts and services, private student loans, and consumer loans on March 1, 2012, credit reporting on October 22, 2012, money transfers on April 4, 2013, debt collection on July 10, 2013, payday loans on November 6, 2013, prepaid cards, credit repair, debt settlement, and pawn and title loans on July 19, 2014, and virtual currency on August 11, 2014. See Table 2.

1.3 Complaint volume by company

Complaint data in this section lags other complaint data by two months to reflect the 60 days companies have to respond to complaints, confirming a commercial relationship with the consumer. Figure 1 and Table 4 show the top 10 most-complained-about companies for May - July 2016. Figure 1 also shows which products consumers complained about for each company. The “Other” category includes consumer loans, student loans, money transfers, payday loans, prepaid cards, and other financial service complaints. Complaints sent to these companies account for 50 percent of all complaints sent to companies over this period. Company-level information should be considered in context of company size and/or market share.

- Ocwen experienced the greatest percentage decrease in average monthly complaint volume (-28 percent) from May - July 2015 to May - July 2016.

⁸ Monthly average calculated from the month the CFPB first handled complaints for the company. Total complaints represent cumulative complaints sent to companies through July 2016.

2. Product spotlight: Prepaid

The CFPB has handled approximately 6,000 prepaid complaints since July 21, 2011, representing 0.6 percent of total complaints.

2.1 Prepaid complaints by type

Figure 2 shows the most common types of prepaid complaints consumers submitted as a percentage of all prepaid complaints handled. The most common issues identified by consumers are problems with managing, opening or closing an account (32 percent) and unauthorized transactions or other transaction issues (30 percent).

- Consumers frequently complain about questionable transactions posted to their prepaid cards. Some consumers claim that their cards are cancelled without notification after submitting a dispute to the company. Consumers report that these cancellations leave them without access to their funds and cause financial hardships. Consumers also report that they had to contact the company numerous times before a new card was issued.

- Consumers report difficulty using prepaid cards after purchase. Often consumers complain that their purchases were declined and when they contacted the company they were asked to submit validating documentation. This documentation was frequently not in their possession and difficult to obtain. For example, consumers report that companies required them to provide their purchase receipt and original packaging, which is often no longer in their possession.
- Consumers also complain of receiving prepaid cards as a refund, but being unable to activate the card, access the funds, or both. Subsequently, for these consumers dormancy fees were assessed, depleting the card balance.
- Consumers report that companies sometimes issued cards without proper verification resulting in theft of their funds. These consumers stated they experienced prolonged investigations of their claims, leaving them without access to their money for extended periods of time. Consumers also complain of delayed credits to their prepaid cards after notifying the company of a fraudulent or unauthorized charge or after a purchase had been cancelled or returned.
- Consumers report balance discrepancies for cards, especially if they were unable to check their balance and transaction history online or were not provided with statements.

2.2 Prepaid complaints by state

Table 5 shows the prepaid complaint volume percentage change by state.⁹ Some of the highlights include:

- Rhode Island (300 percent), West Virginia (300 percent), and New Hampshire (200 percent) experienced the greatest percentage increase in prepaid complaints from July - September 2015 to July - September 2016.
- Montana (-100 percent), Wisconsin (-64 percent), and Connecticut (-57) experienced the greatest percentage decrease in prepaid complaints from July - September 2015 to July - September 2016.
- Of the five most populated states, Texas (139 percent) experienced the greatest percentage increase and New York (8 percent) experienced the least percentage increase in prepaid complaints from July - September 2015 to July - September 2016.

⁹ Three-month averages are rounded, and percentage changes are based on non-rounded averages.

2.3 Prepaid complaints by company

Each month, this section highlights the most-complained-about companies to which we sent complaints.

Companies are expected to respond to complaints sent to them within 15 days. If a complaint cannot be closed within 15 days, the company may indicate that its work on the complaint is “In progress” and provide a final response within 60 days. Company responses provided outside of those windows are considered untimely.

The most-complained-about companies highlighted in Table 6 received about 80 percent of all prepaid complaints sent to companies for response in May - July 2016. This section highlights those complaints. Company-level information should be considered in context of company size and/or market share.

TABLE 6: MOST-COMPLAINED-ABOUT COMPANIES FOR PREPAID¹⁰

3. Geographic spotlight: North Carolina

Each month we spotlight the complaints from one part of the country. This month we are highlighting complaint trends in North Carolina and the Charlotte metro area. As of October 1, 2016, about 27,600 complaints were from North Carolina consumers, of which about 8,000 (29 percent) were from Charlotte.¹¹

¹¹ The Charlotte metro area is defined as zip codes from the Charlotte-Gastonia-Concord, NC-SC Core-Based Statistical Areas (CBSA). http://www.census.gov/population/metro/files/zip07_cbsa06.zip. Complaint counts are based on consumer-provided ZIP code and unless otherwise noted the geographic spotlight section reflects cumulative complaint data since July 21, 2011.

3.1 North Carolina complaints by product

Figure 3 shows the distribution of complaints by product for Charlotte, North Carolina, and the United States as a whole.
