On January 29, 2014, the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (Bureau) filed a Notice of Charges Seeking Disgorgement, Other Equitable Relief, and Civil Money Penalty in this proceeding. The hearing commenced on March 24, 2014, in Philadelphia, PA.

On February 28, 2014, I issued a Protective Order Governing Discovery Material (Protective Order). PHH Corporation, 2014-CFPB-0002, Document 48. Paragraph 8 of the Protective Order provides that submissions containing Confidential Information or Highly-Confidential Information, as defined in the Protective Order, shall be maintained under seal. Id. at 9. Paragraph 4(e) of the Protective Order provides that: (1) redacted versions of such submissions shall be provided to the Bureau's Office of Administrative Adjudication (OAA) within five business days after the original filing date of the submission; (2) the hearing officer will accept any such redacted version as a motion to file the unredacted submission under seal; and (3) the hearing officer will direct OAA to make publicly available only the redacted version no less than six days after the original filing date of the submission. Id. at 7.

On April 15, 2014, Enforcement Counsel (Enforcement) submitted for filing a Motion to Disqualify Schnader Harrison Segal & Lewis LLP (Motion); the Declaration of Kimberly J. Ravener; the Declaration of Navid Vazire; the Declaration of Donald R. Gordon, with ten exhibits attached thereto; and a proposed order. On April 21, 2014, Enforcement submitted a redacted version of the Motion (Redacted Motion), but not the other documents. I have reviewed the submissions and have determined that the original submissions contain information subject to the Protective Order.

It is HEREBY ORDERED that the Redacted Motion submitted by Enforcement, to the extent it constitutes a motion to file its unredacted version under seal, is GRANTED and the unredacted Motion submitted by Enforcement shall be SEALED pursuant to the Protective Order and 12 C.F.R. § 1081.119(c).

It is FURTHER ORDERED that the Redacted Motion submitted by Enforcement may immediately be made publicly available, pursuant to the Protective Order and 12 C.F.R. § 1081.111(c).
