

Your Money, Your Goals* 2016 Cohort Members

Federal government

U.S. Department of Agriculture's Cooperative Extension Service (USDA CES)

USDA CES is continuing its Your Money, Your Goals training for a second year, with financial educators planning to hold training events in over 20 communities across 12 states: Connecticut, Delaware, Florida, Iowa, Maryland, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Ohio, Texas, Utah, and Virginia.

Office of the Special Trustee for American Indians (OST)

OST, which oversees the administration of trust and Individual Indian Money accounts, will offer training to its 50 fiduciary trust officers and staff as part of its commitment to empower Indian Country with financial skills.

Local government

Cities of Boulder and Denver, Colo.

The cities of Boulder and Denver will work together to train state and local social and human services staff in their communities to share Your Money, Your Goals tools with the people they serve.

New York City Administration for Children's Services (NYC ACS)

NYC ACS will provide training for its nonprofit partner organizations that deliver its services to families.

Rapides Workforce Development Board - Alexandria, La.

The Rapides Workforce Development Board will train its staff to share Your Money, Your Goals information, tools, and resources with job seekers.

National nonprofits

National Council of La Raza (NCLR)

NCLR plans to train representatives of 60 of its affiliates to equip their staff with Your Money, Your Goals tools. Those trainers will commit to training staff of another NCLR affiliate, allowing the program to reach 120 organizations.

Points of Light Foundation

The Points of Light Foundation plans to incorporate Your Money, Your Goals into its volunteer financial coaching program, which currently serves 100 cities. The organization is also planning to train participants in its "Military Initiatives" program and its "HandsOn Network" to use the toolkit.

Statewide organizations

Florida Prosperity Partnership (FPP)

FPP, a coalition of over 750 organizations providing pathways to financial security, is driving adoption statewide of Your Money, Your Goals in Florida by inviting organizations across the state to a training webinar and hosting an in-person training in Central Florida.

Illinois Asset Building Group (IABG) – a project of Heartland Alliance

IABG is a Chicago-based statewide coalition committed to expanding access to the tools families need to build financially secure futures. IABG is serving as the lead organization for a coalition of 11 organizations across the state that submitted letters of interest in the program.

Indiana Assets and Opportunity Network and Indiana Legal Services (ILS)

Indiana Assets and Opportunity Network and ILS plan to use Your Money, Your Goals to help to enhance the knowledge of both legal aid and human service provider staff about the importance of financial empowerment, legal assistance, and access to other resources to achieve financial stability. Each organization plans to hold multiple training events across the state.

Legal Aid Society of Hawaii

Legal Aid Society of Hawaii intends to use Your Money, Your Goals to inform, educate and inform the public through its outreach programs.

Opportunity Alliance Nevada (OA-NV)

OA-NV plans to drive adoption of Your Money, Your Goals throughout Nevada by hosting training events in Reno and Las Vegas.

Prosperity Works – Albuquerque, N.M.

Prosperity Works will offer training in Albuquerque and will promote the toolkit to participants in the New Mexico Assets Consortium, which consists of 30 educational, tribal, and non-profit organizations.

Regional organizations

The Puget Sound Coalition

This group of four Seattle-area organizations is coordinating to use Your Money, Your Goals to support asset-building activities in a three-county area of Washington State and plans to expand its training effort to serve other Washington organizations.

ASIAN, Inc. – San Francisco, Calif.

ASIAN, Inc. plans to address the continuum of financial capability service needs of its target populations of low-income tenants, distressed homeowners, first time homebuyers, self-employed minority business owners, a tribal community and the LMI employees of minority businesses with Your Money, Your Goals.

Local organizations

Community Development Corporation of Brownsville (CDCB) – Brownsville, TX
CDCB plans to use Your Money, Your Goals in its existing housing-related work with low-income people, many of whom also have limited formal education.

Goodwill Industries of Greater New York and Northern New Jersey, Inc.
Goodwill of N.Y. and N.J. has 70 programs at 30 sites, 41 retail stores, and a staff of more than 8,500. It plans to train frontline staff in multiple locations to use Your Money, Your Goals resources with its diverse service population.

Metropolitan Family Service (MFS) – Portland, Ore.
An organization serving 30,000 clients annually, MFS plans to use Your Money, Your Goals in its work with older adults, in community schools, and with at-risk youth.

Wayne Metropolitan Community Action Agency – Detroit, Mich.
Wayne Metro will use Your Money, Your Goals to train frontline staff from human and social services agencies across Southeast Michigan working in emergency utility and water assistance, homeless and housing services, early childhood services, school aged youth, and health and wellness initiatives.

The WorkPlace – Bridgeport, Conn.
The WorkPlace will utilize aspects of Your Money, Your Goals on a case-by-case basis with clients, tailoring its modules and tools to the unique needs and goals of each client.