Administrative Proceeding
File No. 2016-CFPB-0020

JOINT MOTION TO EXTEND TIME TO HOLD A SCHEDULING CONFERENCE

Pursuant to 12 C.F.R. § 1081.115, Enforcement Counsel and Phoenix Title Loans, LLC (“Respondent”) jointly move the Court for an order granting an extension of time to hold a scheduling conference in this matter by twenty-one (21) days. On November 4, 2016, the Court granted the Respondent’s Motion to File Response Beyond the Deadline, extending the period of time for Respondent to Answer the Notice of Charges to November 18, 2016. On November 23, 2016, Respondent filed its Answer, and on November 30, 2016 the Court held a telephonic scheduling conference during which the parties agreed to postpone the scheduling conference to a later date in order to pursue settlement negotiations. On January 21, 2017, the parties filed a Joint Status Update informing the Court that negotiations had not been fruitful and requesting that the Court set a date for the scheduling conference. Settlement discussions nevertheless continued, and on January 30, 2017, the Court granted the parties’ Joint Motion to Extend Time to Hold a Scheduling Conference, ordering that a scheduling conference be held on February 21, 2017.

The parties now jointly request that the Court postpone the scheduling conference by an additional twenty-one (21) days because the parties are still finalizing their agreement in this matter. The factors set forth in 12 C.F.R. § 1081.115 weigh in favor of an extension. Although the Court has granted three extensions, the parties are close to finalizing their agreement, and allowing the parties to seek early resolution would not impede the Court's ability to complete the proceeding in the time specified by 12 C.F.R. § 1081.400(a). The parties are confident that they will be able to resolve this matter without further litigation.

In light of the foregoing, the parties hereby jointly move for entry of the Proposed Order included as Attachment A.

Respectfully submitted,
