CIVIL ACTION NO. 3:16CV887

STIPULATED FINAL JUDGMENT AND ORDER

The Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (Bureau) filed this civil action on November 3, 2016, to obtain injunctive relief, restitution, civil money penalties, and other equitable relief against B&B Pawnbrokers, Inc. (B&B). The Complaint alleges violations of: the Truth in Lending Act (TILA), 15 U.S.C. § 1601, et seq.; its implementing regulation, Regulation Z, 12 C.F.R. pt.1026; and § 1036(a)(1)(A) of the Consumer Financial Protection Act of 2010 (CFPA), 12 U.S.C. § 5536(a)(1)(A), for failure to disclose an accurate finance charge and annual-percentage rate on contracts for closed-end pawn loans.

The parties, by and through their respective counsel, agree to the entry of this Stipulated Final Judgment and Order (Order).

THEREFORE, it is ORDERED:

FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS

1. This Court has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this action, and venue is proper in this district.

2. The parties agree to entry of this Order, without adjudication of any issue of fact or law, to settle and resolve all matters in dispute arising from the conduct alleged in the Complaint to the Effective Date of this Order.

3. Defendant neither admits nor denies any allegations in the Complaint, except as specifically stated in this Order. For purposes of this Order, Defendant admits only those facts in the Complaint necessary to establish the Court's jurisdiction over Defendant and the subject matter of this action.

4. Defendant waives service under Rule 4(d) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and waives all rights to seek judicial review or otherwise challenge or contest the validity of this Order.

5. The relief provided in this Order is appropriate and available pursuant to §§ 1054 and 1055 of the CFPA, 12 U.S.C. §§ 5564, 5565, and §§ 108 and 128 of TILA, 15 U.S.C. §§ 1607, 1638.

6. Defendant waives any claim it may have under the Equal Access to Justice Act, 28 U.S.C. § 2412, concerning the prosecution of this action to the date of this Order.

7. Each party will bear its own costs and expenses, including, without limitation, attorneys' fees.

8. Entry of this Order is in the public interest.

12. “Effective Date” means the date this Order is entered.

14. “Finance charge” has the meaning set forth in 12 C.F.R. § 1026.4(a) and is the cost of consumer credit as a dollar amount. It includes any charge payable directly or indirectly by the consumer and imposed directly or indirectly by the creditor as an incident to or a condition of the extension of credit.

15. “Related Consumer Action” means a private action by or on behalf of one or more consumers or an enforcement action by another governmental agency brought against Defendant based on substantially the same facts as described in the Complaint.

ORDER

A. Conduct Relief

16. Defendant and its officers, agents, servants, employees, attorneys, and all other persons who are in active concert or participation with them and who have actual notice of this Order, whether acting directly or indirectly, may not violate, and must take reasonable measures to ensure that its service providers, affiliates, and other agents do not violate, TILA and

Regulation Z, 15 U.S.C. §§ 1601, et seq., 12 C.F.R. part 1026. Defendant, whether acting directly or indirectly, is permanently restrained from:

- a. issuing consumer-finance contracts that disclose an incorrect APR; and
- b. issuing consumer-finance contracts that do not fully and accurately disclose all information required by TILA and Regulation Z in the manner required, 15 U.S.C. § 1601, et seq.; 12 C.F.R. part 1026.

Nothing in this Order shall be read as an exception to this paragraph.

B. Order to Pay Disgorgement

17. Judgment for monetary relief is hereby entered in favor of the Bureau and against Defendant in the amount of $29,000.00.

18. Defendant is ordered to pay $29,000.00 within fourteen days of the Effective Date, in the form of a wire transfer to the Bureau or to such agent as the Bureau may direct, in accordance with wiring instructions to be provided by counsel for the Bureau. The Bureau will deposit the payment in the U.S. Treasury as disgorgement.

19. Defendant must relinquish all dominion, control, and title to the funds paid to the fullest extent permitted by law, and no part of the funds may be returned to Defendant.

C. Order to Pay Civil Money Penalties

20. Under § 1055(c) of the CFPA, 12 U.S.C. § 5565(c), taking into account the factors in 12 U.S.C. § 5565(c)(3), judgment for a civil penalty is entered against Defendant in the amount of $5,000.00.

21. This civil money penalty is imposed based on the violations of law described in the Complaint.

22. Within fourteen days of the Effective Date, Defendant must pay the civil money penalty by wire transfer to the Bureau or to the Bureau's agent in compliance with the Bureau's wiring instructions. Defendant must relinquish all dominion, control, and title to the funds paid to the fullest extent permitted by law, and no part of the funds may be returned to Defendant.

23. The civil money penalty paid under this Order will be deposited in the Civil Penalty Fund of the Bureau pursuant to § 1017(d) of the CFPA, 12 U.S.C. § 5497(d).

24. Defendant must treat the civil money penalty paid under this Order as a penalty paid to the government for all purposes. Regardless of how the Bureau ultimately uses those funds, Defendant may not:

- a. claim, assert, or apply for a tax deduction, tax credit, or any other tax benefit for any civil money penalty paid under this Order; or
- b. seek or accept, directly or indirectly, reimbursement or indemnification from any source, including but not limited to payment made under any insurance policy, for any civil money penalty paid under this Order.

25. To preserve the deterrent effect of the civil money penalty, in any Related Consumer Action, Defendant may not argue that Defendant is entitled to, nor may Defendant benefit from, any offset or reduction of any compensatory monetary remedies imposed in the Related Consumer Action because of the civil money penalty paid in this action (Penalty Offset). If the court or tribunal in any Related Consumer Action grants a Penalty Offset, Defendant must, within 30 days after entry of a final order granting the Penalty Offset, notify the Bureau, and pay the amount of the Penalty Offset to the U.S. Treasury. Such a payment will not be considered an additional civil money penalty and will not change the amount of the civil money penalty imposed in this action.

D. Default or Delinquency

26. In the event of any default on Defendant's obligations to make payment under this Order, interest, computed under 28 U.S.C. § 1961, as amended, will accrue on any outstanding amount not paid from the date of default to the date of payment, and will immediately become due and payable.

27. Under 31 U.S.C. § 7701, Defendant must furnish to the Bureau its taxpayer identifying number, which may be used for purposes of collecting and reporting on any delinquent amount arising out of this Order.

E. Reporting Requirements

28. For five years from the Effective Date, Defendant must notify the Bureau of any development that may affect compliance obligations arising under this Order, including, but not limited to: a dissolution, assignment, sale, merger, or other action that would result in the emergence of a successor company; the creation or dissolution of a subsidiary, parent, or affiliate that engages in any acts or practices subject to this Order; the filing of any bankruptcy or insolvency proceeding by or against Defendant; or a change in Defendant's name or address. Defendant must provide this notice at least 30 days before the development or as soon as practicable after learning about the development, whichever is sooner.

32. Within 30 days of the Effective Date, Defendant must deliver a copy of this Order to each of its board members and executive officers, as well as any persons with responsibilities related to the injunctive relief described in Section A of this Order, whether they are managers, employees, service providers, or other agents and representatives.

33. For five years from the Effective Date, Defendant must deliver a copy of this Order to any business entity resulting from any change in structure referred to in Section E, any future board members and executive officers, as well as to any managers, employees, service providers, and other agents and representatives who will have responsibilities related to the injunctive relief described in Section A of this Order, before they assume their responsibilities.

34. Defendant must secure a signed and dated statement acknowledging receipt of a copy of this Order, ensuring that any electronic signatures comply with the requirements of the E-Sign Act, 15 U.S.C. § 7001, et seq., within 30 days of delivery of the Order, from all persons receiving a copy of this Order under this Section.

36. Defendant must make the documents identified in Paragraph 35 available to the Bureau within 30 days upon the Bureau's request.

Defendant must require its officers, employees, representatives, or agents to appear for interviews, discovery, hearings, trials, and any other proceedings that the Bureau may reasonably request upon 14 days written notice, or other reasonable notice, at such places and times as the Bureau may designate, without the service of compulsory process.

39. For five years from the Effective Date, for purposes of compliance monitoring, the Bureau may communicate directly with Defendant and Defendant may, at its election, have counsel present during such communications and may consult with counsel prior to responding to such communications.

Notwithstanding this release, the Bureau may use the practices alleged in the Complaint in future enforcement actions against the Defendant or its affiliates to establish a pattern or practice of violations or the continuation of a pattern or practice of violations or to calculate the amount of any penalty.
