

CFO update for the second quarter of fiscal year 2017

JANUARY 1 – MARCH 31, 2017

Issued: May 15, 2017

Bureau Fund

As of March 31, 2017, the end of the second quarter of FY 2017, the CFPB had incurred approximately $358.9 million in FY 2017 obligations<sup>1</sup> to carry out the authorities of the Bureau under Federal financial consumer law. Approximately $161.2 million was spent on employee compensation and benefits for the 1,689 CFPB employees who were on-board by the end of the second quarter.

In addition to payroll expenses, the largest obligations made through the end of the second quarter were related to contractual services. Some of the Bureau's significant obligations that occurred through the second quarter of FY 2017 included:

- $12.8 million for a one-year building occupancy agreement with the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency;
- $7.4 million for IT customer relationship management system tools and support;
- $7.3 million for ongoing operations of the consumer contact center and case management system;
- $4.9 million for cyber-security program management support services;
- $2.9 million for technical litigation support services and products provided through an interagency agreement with the Department of Justice;
- $2.1 million for security services for CFPB's temporary headquarters office space;
- $1.2 million for IT service desk and customer support services;
- $1.1 million for consumer complaint analytics solution (previously identified as Consumer Response risk-based targeting system); and
- $1.0 million for IT cabling and infrastructure for CFPB's headquarters office building.

<sup>1</sup>This amount includes commitments, obligations and expenditures. A commitment is a reservation of funds in anticipation of a future obligation. An obligation is a transaction or agreement that creates a legal liability and obligates the government to pay for goods and services ordered or received. An expenditure is the authorization or outlay of payment related to a prior obligation.

FY 2017 Funds Transfers Received from the Federal Reserve

The CFPB is funded principally by transfers from the Federal Reserve System, up to the limits set forth in the Dodd-Frank Act. Funding from the Federal Reserve System for fiscal year 2017 is capped at $646.2 million. As of March 31, 2017, the CFPB had received the following transfers for FY 2017. The amounts and dates of the transfers are shown below.

$246.1M	October 24, 2016
$145.7M	January 23, 2017
$391.8M	Total

Civil Penalty Fund

The Dodd-Frank Act authorizes the CFPB to collect for specified purposes civil penalties it obtains in judicial and administrative actions under federal consumer financial laws. The CFPB is authorized to use these funds for payments to victims of activities for which civil penalties have been imposed, and may also use the funds for consumer education and financial literacy programs to the extent that such victims cannot be located or payments to them are otherwise not practicable. As directed by the Dodd-Frank Act, the CFPB maintains a separate account for these funds at the Federal Reserve Bank of New York.

Civil Penalties Collected in FY 2017

In the first quarter of FY 2017, the CFPB collected civil penalties from 12 defendants totaling $8.7 million. In the second quarter of FY 2017, the CFPB collected $21.3 million from 16 defendants. The CFPB collected a total of $30.1 million in civil penalties in the first half of FY 2017.

Civil Penalty Fund Allocations in FY 2017

Period 8: April 1, 2016 – September 30, 2016

On November 29, 2016, the Bureau made its eighth allocation from the Civil Penalty Fund. As of September 30, 2016, the Civil Penalty Fund contained an unallocated balance of $170.1 million. The Fund Administrator set aside $1 million for administrative expenses, leaving $169.1 million available for allocation pursuant to 12 C.F.R. § 1075.105(c).

A civil penalty was imposed in 13 cases with final orders from Period 8. Under the Civil Penalty Fund rule, victims of the violations for which these civil penalties were imposed were eligible for compensation from the Civil Penalty Fund. Of those 13 cases, 11 cases had classes of eligible victims with no uncompensated harm that is compensable from the Civil Penalty Fund, and two cases had classes of eligible victims with uncompensated harm that is compensable from the Civil Penalty Fund.

Of the Period 8 cases with compensable uncompensated harm, one case, the Morgan Drexen case, received an allocation of $33,993,373 from the Civil Penalty Fund. The classes of victims eligible for an allocation—consumers who from October 27, 2010 to June 18, 2015, were charged certain advance fees by Ledda or Morgan Drexen or who enrolled in a debt relief service in response to deceptive advertisements that Ledda and Morgan Drexen made between December 8, 2010 and April 11, 2014—have uncompensated harm of $33,993,373. In Period 7, an allocation was made to victims in the related Walter Ledda matter. A total of $132,382,488 in Civil Penalty Fund monies has been allocated to eligible consumers in these two matters. The other Period 8 matter with compensable uncompensated harm, the World Law case, did not receive an allocation from the Civil Penalty Fund during the Period 8 allocation. As of the time of this allocation, the Fund Administrator did not have sufficient information to determine the amount of compensable uncompensated harm for victims in the World Law matter. As that determination had not yet been made, in accordance with section 1075.106(d)(1) of the rule, the Fund Administrator exercised her discretion to depart from the allocation procedures described in 1075.106 and did not make an allocation to classes from that case during this allocation. The Fund Administrator will revisit an allocation to this case in Period 9. The total allocation to classes of victims from Period 8 cases was therefore $33,993,373, leaving $135,064,624 available for allocation to prior-period cases.

Under section 1075.106(d)(2) of the rule, when the Fund Administrator exercises this discretion, she may allocate funds for consumer education and financial literacy purposes only to the same extent she could have absent the exercise of discretion. Had the Fund Administrator not exercised her discretion to depart from the 1075.106 allocation procedures, she would have allocated $13,385,933 to the class of victims from the Global Client Solutions case, enough to compensate fully their uncompensated harm as it was determined in Period 4, and $106,813,049 to the class of victims in the World Law case, enough to fully compensate the total potential amount of uncompensated harm. That would leave $14,865,642 available for allocation for Consumer Education and Financial Literacy purposes under section 1075.106(d)(2) of the rule. During Period 8, $0 was allocated for Consumer Education and Financial Literacy purposes.

Period 8 Allocation Summary:

Type	Allocation
Victim Compensation	$33,993,373
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Morgan Drexen, Inc. and Walter Ledda</li> </ul>
Victim Class Allocation: $33,993,373
Consumer Education and Financial Literacy Programs:	$0
Total Allocation	$33,993,373

The remaining unallocated Civil Penalty Fund balance will be available for future allocations. The amount in the Fund as of March 31, 2017 will be available for allocation following the conclusion of Period 9 in accordance with 12 C.F.R. § 1075.105(c).

Bureau-Administered Redress

Dodd-Frank Act section 1055 authorizes a court in a judicial action, or the CFPB in an administrative proceeding, to grant any appropriate legal or equitable relief for a violation of Federal consumer financial law. Such relief may include redress for victims of the violations, including refunds, restitution, and damages. Relief that is intended to compensate victims is treated as fiduciary funds and deposited into the “Legal or Equitable Relief Fund” established at the Department of the Treasury.

Bureau Administered Redress Collected in FY 2017:

In the first quarter of FY 2017, the Bureau collected a total of $323,890.80 in Bureau-Administered Redress from three defendants. In the second quarter of FY 2017, the Bureau collected $7,825.89 from two defendants. In total, the Bureau collected $331,716.69 in Bureau-Administered redress in the first half of FY 2017. In all cases, these funds will be distributed in accordance with the terms of their respective final orders.

<sup>6</sup> In July 2016, the bankruptcy court granted a setoff motion in the Corinthian matter. The Bureau expected to receive a total of $232,946 from a tax refund that the IRS owed Corinthian as payment toward the $531,224,267 order for redress. On August 8, 2016, the Bureau received a check for $35,347. On November 7, 2016, the Bureau received a second check for $218,158.35. This amount represents the balance of the amount owed ($197,599) plus $20,599.35 in interest.

<sup>8</sup> The Bureau received $5,789, which was the remainder of funds that were being held by the court-appointed Receiver, toward the judgment for equitable monetary relief in the December 2016 final judgment against Gordon.
