

CFO update for the second quarter of fiscal year 2018

JANUARY 1 – MARCH 31, 2018

Issued: June 5, 2018

Bureau Fund

As of March 31, 2018, the end of the second quarter of FY 2018, the Bureau had spent¹ approximately $318.6 million in FY 2018 funds to carry out the authorities of the Bureau under Federal financial consumer law. Approximately $170.1 million was spent on employee compensation and benefits for the 1,627 Bureau employees who were on-board by the end of the first quarter.

In addition to payroll expenses, the largest obligations made during the second quarter were related to contractual services. Some of the Bureau's significant obligations that occurred during the second quarter of FY 2018 included:

- $13.1 million for a one-year building occupancy agreement with the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency for the Bureau headquarters building;
- $9.4 million for maintaining ongoing operations of the Bureau's consumer contact center;
- $8.1 million for ongoing enterprise development of the customer relationship management system;
- $4.7 million for cyber-security program management support services;
- $4.1 million for financial coaching program;
- $3.3 million for operation and maintenance of the Bureau headquarters building;
- $2.5 million for technical litigation support services and products provided through an interagency agreement with the Department of Justice;
- $2.2 million for computer laptops to replace an aging inventory approaching the end of lifecycle;
- $1.9 million for IT portfolio and project management support services;
- $1.7 million for expert witnesses in support of enforcement cases;

¹This amount includes commitments, obligations and expenditures. A commitment is a reservation of funds in anticipation of a future obligation. An obligation is a transaction or agreement that creates a legal liability and obligates the government to pay for goods and services ordered or received. An expenditure is the authorization or outlay of payment related to a prior obligation.

FY 2018 Funds Transfers Received from the Federal Reserve

The Bureau is funded principally by transfers from the Federal Reserve System, up to the limits set forth in the Dodd-Frank Act. Funding from the Federal Reserve System for fiscal year 2018 is capped at $663 million. As of March 31, 2018, the Bureau had received the following transfers for FY 2018. The amounts and dates of the transfers are shown below.

$217.1M	October 18, 2017
$217.1M	Total

Civil Penalty Fund

The Dodd-Frank Act authorizes the Bureau to collect for specified purposes civil penalties it obtains in judicial and administrative actions under federal consumer financial laws. The Bureau is authorized to use these funds for payments to victims of activities for which civil penalties have been imposed, and may also use the funds for consumer education and financial literacy programs to the extent that such victims cannot be located or payments to them are otherwise not practicable. As directed by the Dodd-Frank Act, the Bureau maintains a separate account for these funds at the Federal Reserve Bank of New York.

Civil Penalties Collected in FY 2018

In the first quarter of FY 2018, the Bureau collected civil penalties from four defendants totaling $4.9 million. In the second quarter of FY 2018, the Bureau collected $10.3 million in civil penalties from two cases. In the first half of FY 2018, the Bureau collected a total of $15.2 million in civil penalties.

Civil Penalty Fund Allocations in FY 2018

Period 10: April 1, 2017 – September 30, 2017

On November 29, 2017, the Bureau made its tenth allocation from the Civil Penalty Fund. As of September 30, 2017, the Civil Penalty Fund contained an unallocated balance of $54,283,486 million. That amount was available for allocation pursuant to 12 C.F.R. § 1075.105(c).

A civil penalty was imposed in 10 cases with final orders from Period 10. Under the Civil Penalty Fund rule, victims of the violations for which these civil penalties were imposed were eligible for compensation from the Civil Penalty Fund. Of those 10 cases, 6 cases had classes of eligible victims with no uncompensated harm that is compensable from the Civil Penalty Fund, and four cases had classes of eligible victims with uncompensated harm that is compensable from the Civil Penalty Fund. Three of the four cases with eligible uncompensated harm, The Mortgage Law Group, Commercial Credit Consultants, et al., and Prime Marketing Holdings, LLC received an allocation from the Civil Penalty Fund. The fourth case, Clausen & Cobb did not receive an allocation. As of the time of this allocation, the Fund Administrator did not have sufficient information to determine whether funds should be allocated specifically to the class of victims made eligible by the Default Judgment against Clausen & Cobb

⁴ The consent order required Transworld Systems, Inc. to pay $1.5 million in civil penalties within 10 days of the effective date of the order and the remaining $1 million within 60 days. The $1.5 million was previously collected in the fourth quarter of FY 2017.

⁵ The consent order required Defendants Donadio and Top Notch Funding II, LLC, jointly and severally, to pay a civil money penalty of $20,000 within 30 days of the effective date of the order and the remaining $42,500 within 120 days.

Management Company, Inc. and Joshua Cobb.⁶ As a result, in accordance with section 1075.106(d)(1) of the rule, the Fund Administrator exercised her discretion to depart from the allocation procedures described in 1075.106 and did not make an allocation to victims in this matter until additional information becomes available.

In The Mortgage Law Group, LLP case, the class of eligible victims – consumers who purchased mortgage assistance relief products from TMLG between May 2011 and January 2013 – had $18,331,737 in uncompensated harm. In the Commercial Credit Consultants case, the class of eligible victims – all consumers who paid fees to the defendants for credit repair services from August 1, 2009 and September 30, 2014 – had $30,650,002 in uncompensated harm. In the Prime Marketing Holdings, LLC case, the class of eligible victims – all consumers who paid fees to the defendants for credit repair services from October 1, 2014 and August 31, 2017 – had $20,600,440 in uncompensated harm. During this allocation period, total eligible uncompensated harm exceeded available funds. As such, a review of case factors including quality and availability of victim data was completed, and a determination was made to provide full compensation in The Mortgage Law Group matter, and partial compensation in the Commercial Credit Consultants, and Prime Marketing Holdings, LLC matters. For The Mortgage Law Group class, $18,331,737 was allocated. For the Commercial Credit Consultants, and Prime Marketing Holdings, LLC matters, amounts of $21,500,716, and $14,451,033 were allocated respectively— enough to compensate 70% of those victims’ uncompensated harm. In accordance with the Civil Penalty Fund Rule, if sufficient funds are available in future periods, these victim classes may receive additional allocations to compensate their remaining uncompensated harm.

During Period 10, $0 were allocated for Consumer Education and Financial Literacy purposes.

The total allocation for Period 10 was $54,283,486.

Period 10 Allocation Summary:

Type	Allocation
Victim Compensation	$54,283,486

The amount in the Fund as of March 31, 2018 will be available for allocation following the conclusion of Period 11 in accordance with 12 C.F.R. § 1075.105(c).

Bureau-Administered Redress

Dodd-Frank Act section 1055 authorizes a court in a judicial action, or the Bureau in an administrative proceeding, to grant any appropriate legal or equitable relief for a violation of Federal consumer financial law. Such relief may include redress for victims of the violations, including refunds, restitution, and damages. Relief that is intended to compensate victims is treated as fiduciary funds and deposited into the “Legal or Equitable Relief Fund” established at the Department of the Treasury.

Bureau Administered Redress Collected in FY 2018:

In the first and second quarters of FY 2018, the Bureau did not collect any Bureau-Administered Redress.
