

Don't let your money fly away.

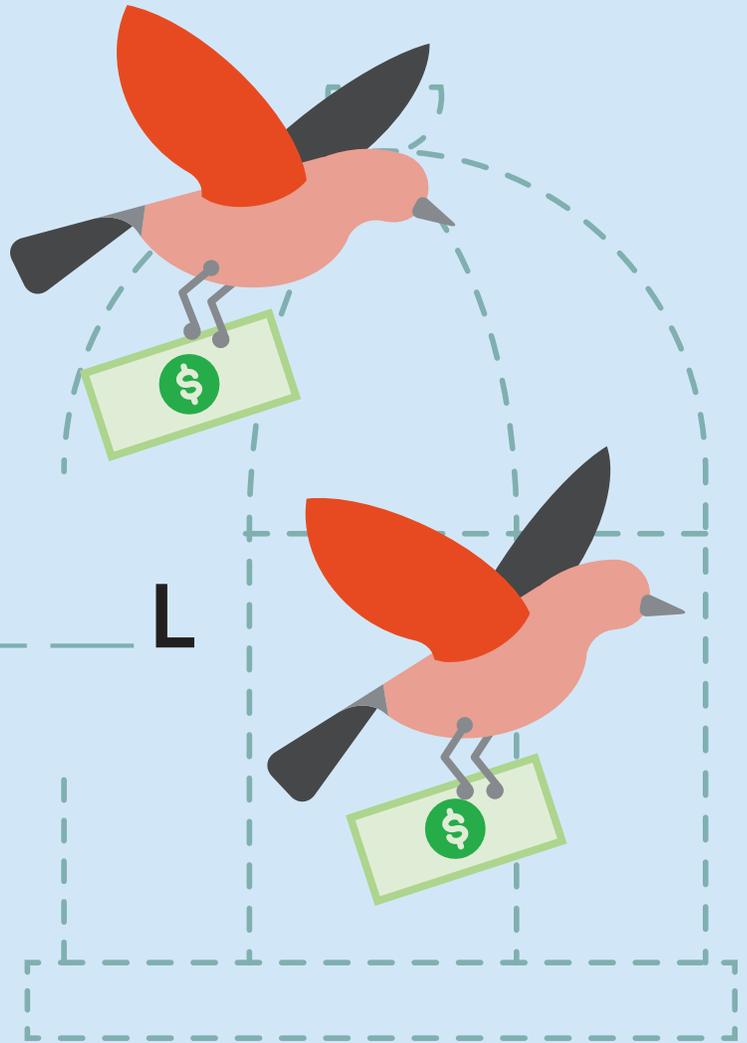

Fill in the blanks with the following letters:

AIADAUCIR

E L _ _ E R

F _ N _ N _ _ _ L

F _ _ _ D

 Answers on back!

Answer:

E L D E R
F I N A N C I A L
F R A U D

The most common form of elder abuse, but only a small fraction of cases are reported.

Steps you can take to guard against elder financial fraud at home.

Secure jewelry, valuables, blank checks, statements, and credit cards in a locked file cabinet.

Monitor bank accounts and credit card bills. Check your free credit reports at annualcreditreport.com

Require receipts for purchases made by a caregiver.

