4 10. No later than 2 business days after the Effective Date, Defendant must take

6 for services provided by Defendant, including by sending notice to all Persons providing 7 services associated with such payments, including factoring companies, customer service

15 MONETARY PROVISIONS

16 VI. ORDER TO PAY REDRESS

17 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

18 17. A judgment for monetary relief is entered in favor of the Bureau and against 19 Defendant, in the amount of $573,000 for the purpose of providing redress to Affected
20 Consumers; however, full payment of this judgment will be suspended upon satisfaction
21 of the obligations in Paragraphs 18 through 21 of this Section and Paragraphs 32 through 22 36 and 38 of Section IX and subject to Section VII of this Order.

23 18. Within 10 days of the Effective Date, Defendant must pay to the Bureau, by 24 wire transfer to the Bureau or to the Bureau's agent, and according to the Bureau's wiring
25 instructions, $21,567.59 in partial satisfaction of the judgment as ordered in Paragraph 17
26 of this Section.
27
28

1 19. With regard to any redress that Defendant pays pursuant to Paragraph 18, if 2 Defendant receives, directly or indirectly, any reimbursement or indemnification from 3 any source, including but not limited to payment made under any insurance policy, or if 4 Defendant secures a tax deduction or tax credit with regard to any federal, state, or local 5 tax, Defendant must: (a) immediately notify the Enforcement Director in writing, and (b)
6 within 10 days of receiving the funds or monetary benefit, Defendant must transfer to the 7 Bureau the full amount of such funds or monetary benefit (Additional Payment) to the 8 Bureau or to the Bureau's agent according to the Bureau's wiring instructions. After the 9 Bureau receives the Additional Payment, the amount of the suspended judgment
10 referenced in Paragraph 17 will be reduced by the amount of the Additional Payment and 11 the Additional Payment will be applied toward satisfaction of the monetary judgment
12 entered in Paragraph 17.

13 20. Any funds received by the Bureau in satisfaction of this judgment will be 14 deposited into a fund or funds administered by the Bureau or to the Bureau's agent
15 according to applicable statutes and regulations to be used for redress for injured 16 consumers, including, but not limited to, refund of moneys, restitution, damages, or other 17 monetary relief, and for any attendant expenses for the administration of any such 18 redress.

19 21. If the Bureau determines, in its sole discretion, that redress to consumers is 20 wholly or partially impracticable or if funds remain after the administration of redress is 21 completed, the Bureau shall deposit the remaining funds in the U.S. Treasury as 22 disgorgement. Defendant will have no right to challenge the Bureau's choice of remedies 23 under this Section, and will have no right to contest any actions that the Bureau or its 24 representatives may take under this paragraph.

25 22. Payment of redress to any Affected Consumer under this Order may not be 26 conditioned on that Affected Consumer waiving any right.
27
28

1 VII. EFFECT OF MISREPRESENTATION OR OMISSION REGARDING
2 FINANCIAL CONDITION

3 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

4 23. The suspension of the monetary judgment entered in Section VI of this 5 Order is expressly premised on the truthfulness, accuracy, and completeness of 6 Defendant's financial statements and supporting documents submitted to the Bureau on 7 or about May 19, 2020 which Defendant asserts are truthful, accurate, and complete, and 8 which include:

- 9 a. Financial Statement of Defendant, including the attachments, signed on 10 May 19, 2020 and submitted to the Bureau on or about May 19, 2020.
11 b. 2016 federal tax returns for Defendant, submitted to the Bureau on or 12 about May 19, 2020.
13

14 24. If upon motion by the Bureau, the Court determines that Defendant has 15 failed to disclose any material asset or that any of his financial statements or oral 16 testimony contain any material misrepresentation or omission, including materially 17 misstating the value of any asset, the Court shall terminate the suspension of the 18 monetary judgment entered in Section VI and without further adjudication, shall reinstate 19 the judgment entered in Section VI of this Order and the full judgment of $573,000 shall 20 be immediately due and payable, less any amounts paid to the Bureau under Section VI
21 of this Order.

22 25. If the Court terminates the suspension of the monetary judgment under this 23 Section, the Bureau will be entitled to interest on the judgment, computed from the date 24 of entry of this Order, at the rate prescribed by 28 U.S.C. § 1961, as amended, on any 25 outstanding amounts not paid.

26 26. Provided, however, that in all other respects this Order shall remain in full 27 force and effect unless otherwise ordered by the Court; and, provided further, that 28 proceedings instituted under this provision would be in addition to, and not in lieu of any

1 other civil or criminal remedies as may be provided by law, including any other
2 proceedings that the Bureau may initiate to enforce this Order.

3 VIII. ORDER TO PAY CIVIL MONEY PENALTIES

4 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

5 27. Under Section 1055(c) of the CFPA, 12 U.S.C. § 5565(c), by reason of the 6 violations of law alleged in the Complaint, and taking into account the factors in 12
7 U.S.C. § 5565(c)(3), Defendant must pay a civil money penalty of $1 to the Bureau. This 8 amount is based on Defendant's limited ability to pay as attested to in his financial 9 statements listed in Section VII above.

10 28. Within 10 days of the Effective Date, Defendant must pay the civil money 11 penalty by wire transfer to the Bureau or to the Bureau's agent in compliance with the 12 Bureau's wiring instructions.

13 29. The civil money penalty paid under this Order will be deposited in the Civil 14 Penalty Fund of the Bureau as required by Section 1017(d) of the CFPA, 12 U.S.C.
15 § 5497(d).

16 30. Defendant must treat the civil money penalty paid under this Order as a 17 penalty paid to the government for all purposes. Regardless of how the Bureau ultimately 18 uses those funds, Defendant may not:

- 19 a. Claim, assert, or apply for a tax deduction, tax credit, or any other tax 20 benefit for any civil money penalty paid under this Order; or 21 b. Seek or accept, directly or indirectly, reimbursement or indemnification 22 from any source, including, but not limited to payment made under any 23 insurance policy, with regard to any civil money penalty paid under this 24 Order.

25 31. Defendant agrees that the civil penalty imposed by the Order represents a 26 civil penalty owed to the United States Government, is not compensation for actual 27 pecuniary loss, and thus it is not subject to discharge under the Bankruptcy Code, 11
28 U.S.C. § 523(a)(7).

1 IX. ADDITIONAL MONETARY PROVISIONS

2 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

3 32. In the event of any default on Defendant's obligations to make payment
4 under this Order, interest, computed under 28 U.S.C. § 1961, as amended, will accrue on 5 any outstanding payments not paid from the date of default to the date of payment, and 6 will immediately become due and payable.

7 33. Defendant relinquishes all dominion, control, and title to the funds paid
8 under this Order to the fullest extent permitted by law and no part of the funds may be 9 returned to Defendant.

10 34. The facts alleged in the Complaint will be taken as true and be given 11 collateral estoppel effect, without further proof, in any proceeding based on the entry of 12 the Order, or in any subsequent civil litigation by or on behalf of the Bureau, including in 13 a proceeding to enforce its rights to any payment or monetary judgment under this Order, 14 such as a nondischargeability complaint in any bankruptcy case.

15 35. The facts alleged in the Complaint establish all elements necessary to sustain 16 an action by the Bureau under Section 523(a)(2)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C.
17 § 523(a)(2)(A), and for such purposes this Order will have collateral estoppel effect
18 against Defendant, even in Defendant's capacity as debtor-in-possession.

19 36. Under 31 U.S.C. § 7701, Defendant must furnish to the Bureau his taxpayer 20 identification number(s), which may be used for purposes of collecting and reporting on 21 any delinquent amount arising out of this Order.

22 37. Within 30 days of the entry of a final judgment, consent order, or settlement 23 in a Related Consumer Action, Defendant must notify the Enforcement Director of the 24 final judgment, consent order, or settlement in writing. That notification must indicate the 25 amount of redress, if any, that Defendant paid or is required to pay to consumers and 26 describe the consumers or classes of consumers to whom that redress has been or will be 27 paid. To preserve the deterrent effect of the civil money penalty in any Related 28 Consumer Action, Defendant may not argue that Defendant is entitled to, nor may

1 Defendant benefit by, any offset or reduction of any monetary remedies imposed in the 2 Related Consumer Action because of the civil money penalty paid in this action or 3 because of any payment that the Bureau makes from the Civil Penalty Fund. If the court
4 in any Related Consumer Action offsets or otherwise reduces the amount of 5 compensatory monetary remedies imposed against Defendant based on the civil money
6 penalty paid in this action or based on any payment that the Bureau makes from the Civil 7 Penalty Fund, Defendant must, within 30 days after entry of a final order granting such 8 offset or reduction, notify the Bureau and pay the amount of the offset or reduction to the 9 U.S. Treasury. Such a payment will not be considered an additional civil money penalty 10 and will not change the amount of the civil money penalty imposed in this action.

11 38. Upon written request, any consumer reporting agency must furnish 12 consumer reports to the Bureau concerning Defendant under Section 604(a)(1) of the Fair 13 Credit Reporting Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1681 b(a)(1), which may be used for purposes of 14 collecting and reporting on any delinquent amount arising out of this Order.

15 COMPLIANCE PROVISIONS

16 X. REPORTING REQUIREMENTS

17 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

18 39. Defendant must notify the Bureau of any development that may affect 19 compliance obligations arising under this Order, including, but not limited to, the filing of 20 any bankruptcy or insolvency proceeding by or against Defendant; or a change in 21 Defendant's name or address. Defendant must provide this notice, if practicable, at least 23 development.

24 40. Within 7 days of the Effective Date, Defendant must:

- a. Lists each applicable paragraph and subparagraph of the Order and describes in detail the manner and form in which Defendant has complied with each such paragraph and subparagraph of this Order; and 5 of perjury.

6 44. Within 30 days of the Effective Date, Defendant, for any business for which 7 he is majority owner or which he directly or indirectly controls, must deliver a copy of 8 this Order to each of its board members and executive officers, as well as to any 10 responsibilities related to the subject matter of the Order.

11 45. For 5 years from the Effective Date, Defendant, for any business for which 12 he is the majority owner or which he directly or indirectly controls, must deliver a copy 13 of this Order to any business entity resulting from any change in structure referred to in 15 responsibilities.

17 of a copy of this Order, ensuring that any electronic signatures comply with all the 18 requirements of the E-Sign Act, 15 U.S.C. § 7001 et seq., within 30 days of delivery, 19 from all persons receiving a copy of this Order under this Section.

20 XII. RECORDKEEPING

21 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

22 47. Defendant must create, for at least 10 years from the Effective Date, all 23 documents and records necessary to demonstrate full compliance with each provision of 24 this Order, including all submissions to the Bureau. Defendant must retain these 25 documents for at least 10 years after creation and make them available to the Bureau
26 upon the Bureau's request.

27 48. Defendant must maintain, for at least 5 years from the Effective Date or 5 28 years after creation, whichever is longer:

- 1 a. Financial records, including, but not limited to, individual and corporate 2 tax returns, credit reports, any and all documentation required to 3 complete the Bureau’s individual and corporate financial disclosure
4 forms, and accounting records showing gross and net revenues, all costs
5 incurred in generating revenues, and the resulting net profit or loss;

8 payments made, and the quantity and description of goods and services 9 purchased; and

4 and location of, and the amount of injury sustained by, each Affected Consumer.

5 Defendant must provide such information in his or his agents' possession or control
6 within 14 days of receiving a written request from the Bureau.

7 52. Defendant must cooperate fully with the Bureau in this matter and in any
