Overdraft/NSF metrics for Top 20 banks based on 2021 overdraft/NSF revenue reported

as of June 24, 2022

Blue shading reflects recent changes publicly reported since approximately September 1, 2021 that are either already in effect or are planned to go into effect. Check with the bank or review your account agreement to confirm the details prior to opening an account. Some banks below also offer accounts with no overdraft or NSF fees, or with other terms that differ from the account terms listed below. Some banks may be enacting changes that have not been publicly announced.

² This column describes non-recurring debit card transactions, like point-of-sale transactions. Recurring debit card transactions may still result in overdraft fees if the institution otherwise charges overdraft fees.

³ If a bank’s fee size changes based on the number of overdraft fees charged, the highest overdraft fee is reflected here.

⁵ Banks reflected here vary as to whether they apply de minimis buffers of up to $12 based on the size of the transaction, the size of the negative balance, or both. All cushions of $50 or more reflected here apply to the size of the negative balance.
