IV

Order to Pay Redress

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

12. Within ten (10) days of the Effective Date, Defendant must reserve or deposit into a segregated deposit account $6 million for the purpose of providing redress to Affected Consumers as required by this Section (“Redress Fund”).

13. Within forty-five (45) days of the Effective Date, Defendant must submit to the Enforcement Director for review and non-objection a comprehensive written plan for providing redress to Affected Consumers consistent with this Order (“Redress Plan”). The Enforcement Director will have the discretion to make a determination of non-objection to the Redress Plan or direct Defendant to revise it. If the Enforcement Director directs Defendant to revise the Redress Plan, Defendant must make the revisions and resubmit the Redress Plan to the Enforcement Director within thirty (30) days. After receiving notification that the Enforcement Director has made a determination of non-objection to the Redress Plan, Defendant must implement and adhere to the steps, recommendations, deadlines, and timeframes outlined in the Redress Plan.

14. The Redress Plan must:
- a. Specify the methodology for identifying the Affected Consumers, including through Defendant’s Salesforce dispute database and any other records that identify Applicants who disputed the accuracy of Defendant's Consumer Reports based on the inclusion of criminal records that did not belong to them;

- b. Describe the notification Defendant will mail to all Affected Consumers with each redress payment ("Redress Notice");
- c. Require Defendant to compensate by check each Affected Consumer on a pro rata basis, with each Affected Consumer receiving a share of the Redress Fund that is proportionate to the number of Qualifying Disputes involving each Affected Consumer;
- d. Describe how Defendant will contact Affected Consumers for the purpose of providing redress, and the steps Defendant will take with respect to Affected Consumers whose mailed Redress Notice may be returned to Defendant as undeliverable for any reason, including, at a minimum, using the National Change of Address System to attempt to obtain a current physical address for any Affected Consumer and to promptly re-mail all returned letters to current physical addresses;
- e. Require that if a redress check for any Affected Consumer is returned to Defendant, or if a current mailing address cannot be identified using the National Change of Address System, Defendant must retain the redress amount of such consumer for a period of one hundred eighty (180) days from the date the check was originally mailed, during which period such amount may be claimed by such consumer upon appropriate proof of identity;

- f. Provide that Defendant shall pay all costs of administering the Redress Plan as required by this Section; and
- g. Consistent with the terms of this Order, set forth all procedures, deadlines, and timeframes for completing each step of the plan.

15. The redress payments described herein constitute compensation for damage or harm that was or may have been caused by a violation or potential violation of law.

16. After completing the Redress Plan, if the amount of redress provided to Affected Consumers is less than the Redress Fund, within thirty (30) days of the completion of the Redress Plan, Defendant must pay to the Bureau, by wire transfer to the Bureau or to the Bureau's agent, and according to the Bureau's wiring instructions, the difference between the amount of redress provided to Affected Consumers and the Redress Fund.

17. The Bureau may use these remaining funds to pay additional redress to Affected Consumers. If the Bureau determines, in its sole discretion, that additional redress to Affected Consumers is wholly or partially impracticable or otherwise inappropriate, or if funds remain after the additional redress is completed, the Bureau will deposit any remaining funds in the U.S. Treasury as disgorgement. Defendant will have no right to challenge any actions that the Bureau or its representatives may take under this paragraph.

18. Defendant may not condition the payment of any redress to any Affected Consumer under this Order on that Affected Consumer waiving any right.

V

Order to Pay Civil Money Penalty

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

19. Under § 1055(c) of the CFPA, 12 U.S.C. § 5565(c), by reason of the violations of law alleged in the Complaint, and taking into account the factors in 12 U.S.C. § 5565(c)(3), Defendant must pay a civil money penalty of $2.5 million to the Bureau.
20. Within ten (10) days of the Effective Date, Defendant must pay the civil money penalty by wire transfer to the Bureau or to the Bureau's agent in compliance with the Bureau's wiring instructions.
21. The civil money penalty paid under this Order will be deposited in the Civil Penalty Fund of the Bureau as required by § 1017(d) of the CFPA, 12 U.S.C. § 5497(d).
22. Defendant must treat the civil money penalty paid under this Order as a penalty paid to the government for all purposes. Regardless of how the Bureau ultimately uses those funds, Defendant may not:
 - a. Claim, assert, or apply for a tax deduction, tax credit, or any other tax benefit for any civil money penalty paid under this Order; or
 - b. Seek or accept, directly or indirectly, reimbursement or indemnification from any source, including but not limited to payment made under any insurance policy, with regard to any civil money penalty paid under this Order.
23. To preserve the deterrent effect of the civil money penalty in any Related Consumer Action, Defendant may not argue that Defendant is entitled to, nor may Defendant benefit by, any offset or reduction of any compensatory monetary remedies imposed in a Related Consumer Action because of the civil money penalty paid in this action or because of any payment that the Bureau makes from the Civil Penalty Fund. If the court in any Related Consumer Action offsets or otherwise reduces the amount of compensatory monetary remedies imposed against Defendant based on the civil money penalty paid in this action or based on any payment that the Bureau makes from the Civil Penalty Fund, Defendant must, within thirty (30) days after entry of a final order granting such offset or reduction, notify the Bureau, and pay the amount of the offset or reduction to the U.S. Treasury. Such a payment will not be considered an additional civil money penalty and will not change the amount of the civil money penalty imposed in this action.

VI

Additional Monetary Provisions

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

24. In the event of any default on Defendant's obligations to make payment under this Order, interest, computed under 28 U.S.C. § 1961, as amended, will accrue on any outstanding amounts not paid from the date of default to the date of payment, and will immediately become due and payable.

25. Defendant relinquishes all dominion, control, and title to the funds paid under this Order to the fullest extent permitted by law and no part of the funds may be returned to Defendant.

26. The facts alleged in the Complaint will be taken as true and be given collateral estoppel effect, without further proof, in any subsequent civil litigation by or on behalf of the Bureau, including in a proceeding to enforce its rights to any payment or monetary judgment under this Order, such as a nondischargeability complaint in any bankruptcy case.

27. The facts alleged in the Complaint establish all elements necessary to sustain an action by the Bureau under § 523(a)(2)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(2)(A), and for such purposes this Order will have collateral estoppel effect against Defendant, even in Defendant's capacity as debtor-in-possession.

28. Under 31 U.S.C. § 7701, Defendant, unless it already has done so, must furnish to the Bureau its taxpayer identifying numbers, which may be used for purposes of collecting and reporting on any delinquent amount arising out of this Order.

29. For ten (10) years from the Effective Date, within thirty (30) days of the entry of a final judgment, order, or settlement in a Related Consumer Action, Defendant must notify the Enforcement Director of the final judgment, order, or settlement in writing. That notification must indicate the amount of redress, if any, that Defendant paid or is required to pay to consumers and describe the consumers or classes of consumers to whom that redress has been or will be paid.
