MONETARY PROVISIONS

III.

Order to Pay Redress

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

22. A judgment for consumer redress is entered in favor of Plaintiffs and against Defendants, jointly and severally, for Defendants' violations of 12 U.S.C. §§ 5531, 5536; 16 C.F.R. § 310.4(a)(2); 16 C.F.R. § 310.3(a)(2); and Chapter 93A as follows:

- a. $36,229,618 for all fees charged to Consumers from January 31, 2013, to the Effective Date; and
- b. an amount corresponding to the fees Defendant Key Credit charged Affected Consumers from January 1, 2011, to January 31, 2013.

However, full payment of this judgment will be suspended upon satisfaction of the obligations in this Section and Section VI and subject to Section IV of this Order.

23. Within 10 days of the Effective Date, Defendants must pay to the Bureau, by wire transfer to the Bureau or to the Bureau's agent, and according to the Bureau's wiring instructions, $20,000.00 in partial satisfaction of the judgment as ordered in Paragraph 22 of this Section.

24. Any funds received by Plaintiffs in satisfaction of this judgment will be deposited into a fund or funds administered by the Bureau or the Bureau's agent according to applicable statutes and regulations to be used for redress for Affected Consumers, including legal restitution or the refund of moneys, and for any attendant expenses for the administration of any such redress.

25. If the Bureau determines, in its sole discretion, that providing redress to consumers is wholly or partially impracticable or if funds remain after the administration of redress is completed, the Bureau will deposit any remaining funds in the U.S. Treasury. Defendants will have no right to challenge the Bureau's choice of remedies under this Section and will have no right to contest the manner of distribution chosen by the Bureau.

26. Payment of redress to any Affected Consumer under this Order may not be conditioned on that Affected Consumer waiving any right.

IV.

Effect of Misrepresentation or Omission Regarding Financial Condition

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

27. The suspension of monetary judgment entered in Section III of this Order is expressly premised on the truthfulness, accuracy, and completeness of Defendants' sworn financial statements and supporting documents submitted to Plaintiffs on or about October 13, 2025, which Defendants assert are truthful, accurate, and complete and include: Financial Disclosure Form for Corporate Defendant (Key Credit); Financial Disclosure Form for Individual Defendant (Nikitas Tsoukales); 2023 and 2024 income tax returns with schedules for Key Credit; 2024 income tax return with schedules for Nikitas Tsoukales; Capital One accounts; Needham Bank accounts; Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance; Key Credit gross revenues (2011-2024); Key Credit Income Statement (P&L) for year ended December 31, 2024; Credit Report for Nikitas Tsoukales (October 8, 2025); and Credit Report for Dara Tsoukales (October 8, 2025).

28. If upon motion by any Plaintiff, the Court determines that Defendants have failed to disclose any material asset or that any of its financial statements or oral testimony contain any material misrepresentation or omission, including materially misstating the value of any asset, the Court shall terminate the suspension of the monetary judgment entered in Section III and without further adjudication, shall reinstate the monetary judgment as ordered in Paragraph 22, and that full judgment shall be immediately due and payable, less any amounts paid to the Bureau under Section III of this Order.

29. If the Court terminates the suspension of the monetary judgment under this Section, the Plaintiffs will be entitled to interest on the judgment, computed from the date of entry of this Order, at the rate prescribed by 28 U.S.C. § 1961, as amended, on any outstanding amounts not paid.

30. Provided, however, that in all other respects this Order shall remain in full force and effect unless otherwise ordered by the Court; and, provided further, that proceedings instituted under this provision would be in addition to, and not in lieu of any other civil or criminal remedies as many be provided by law, including any other proceedings that any Plaintiff may initiate to enforce this Order.

V.

Order to Pay Civil Money Penalty

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

31. Under § 1055(c) of the CFPA, 12 U.S.C. § 5565(c), by reason of the violations of law set forth in the Memorandum and Order [Doc. No. 146] and considering the factors in 12 U.S.C. § 5565(c)(3), Defendants must pay a civil money penalty, jointly and severally, in the amount of $1.00. This nominal penalty is based on Defendants' limited ability to pay as attested to in its sworn financial statements listed in Section IV above.

32. Within 10 days of the Effective Date, Defendants must pay the civil penalty amount set forth in Paragraph 31 by wire transfer to the Bureau or to the Bureau's agent in compliance with the Bureau's wiring instructions.

33. The civil money penalty paid under this Order will be deposited in the Civil Penalty Fund of the Bureau as required by the CFPA, 12 U.S.C. § 5497(d).

34. Defendants must treat the civil money penalty paid under this Order as a penalty paid to the government for all purposes. Regardless of how the Bureau ultimately uses those funds, Defendants may not:

- a. claim, assert, or apply for a tax deduction, tax credit, or any other tax benefit for any civil money penalty paid under this Order; or
- b. seek or accept, directly or indirectly, reimbursement or indemnification from any source, including but not limited to payment made under any insurance policy, with regard to any civil money penalty paid under this Order.

35. The civil penalty imposed by the Order represents a penalty paid to the United States Government, is not compensation for actual pecuniary loss, and thus, as to Defendant Tsoukales, is not subject to discharge under the Bankruptcy Code under 11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(7).

VI.

Additional Monetary Provision

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

36. In the event of default on a Defendant's obligations to make payment under this Order, interest, computed under 28 U.S.C. § 1961, as amended, will accrue on any outstanding amounts not paid from the date of default to the date of payment, and will immediately become due and payable.

37. Defendants relinquish all dominion, control, and title to the funds paid under this Order to the fullest extent permitted by law and no part of the funds may be returned to the Defendants.

38. Under 31 U.S.C. § 7701, each Defendant, unless it already has done so, must furnish to Plaintiffs its taxpayer identification numbers, which may be used for purposes of collecting and reporting on any delinquent amount arising out of this Order.

39. Within 30 days of the entry of a final judgment, order, or settlement in a Related Consumer Action, the relevant Defendant must notify the Enforcement Director and the Commonwealth of the final judgment, order, or settlement in writing. That notification must indicate the amount of redress, if any, that Defendant paid or is required to pay to Consumers and describe the Consumers or classes of Consumers to whom that redress has been or will be paid. To preserve the deterrent effect of the civil money penalties in any Related Consumer Action, neither Defendant may argue that the relevant Defendant is entitled to, nor may any Defendant benefit by, any offset or reduction of any compensatory monetary remedies imposed in the Related Consumer Action because of the civil money penalties paid in this action or because of any payment that the Bureau makes from the Civil Penalty Fund ("Penalty Offset"). If the court in any Related Consumer Action grants such a Penalty Offset to any Defendant, the Defendant must, within 30 days after entry of a final order granting the Penalty Offset, notify the Bureau, and pay the amount of the Penalty Offset to the U.S. Treasury. Such a payment will not be considered an additional civil money penalty and will not change the amount of the civil money penalties imposed in this action.
