

Knowing your prepaid card rights

You have certain rights under the law and the terms of your cardholder agreement for your prepaid card. It's important to know your rights and how to exercise them.

YOU'LL HAVE THE MOST PROTECTION IF YOU REGISTER YOUR PREPAID CARD

Your use of a prepaid card might be limited until it's registered. Instructions for how to register your card are usually provided on the card packaging. Registration typically provides you with more protections if your card is lost or stolen. Some prepaid card providers may require you to register your card and verify your identity when you buy or receive the prepaid card, or soon after.

CHOOSING HOW YOU GET PAID

Some employers might pay you only using a traditional paper check. If your employer offers to pay your wages by payroll card, you must be offered at least one other option. That option might be a paper check, or it could be direct deposit to an account of your choosing (such as a checking or savings account or your own prepaid card). Some states require employers to offer paper checks, while others permit employers to mandate electronic pay for wages. In those cases, you might have to choose between a payroll card and direct deposit.

CHOOSING HOW YOU RECEIVE SOME GOVERNMENT BENEFITS

For some types of government benefits, you may have a choice between receiving the benefits on a government-arranged prepaid card and having them directly deposited into your bank account or onto your own prepaid card.

PROTECTIONS FROM FRAUD AND ERRORS FOR PAYROLL CARDS, SOME GOVERNMENT BENEFIT CARDS, AND FEDERAL PAYMENTS

You have protections in case of an unauthorized transaction or other error if you are paid through a payroll card arranged by your employer, receive certain types of government benefits through a government-arranged card, or receive any payments from the federal government onto your own prepaid card. For example, you generally can't be held responsible for unauthorized charges or other errors on these cards if you report them promptly. The card provider may be required by federal law to credit the disputed amount to your account while investigating the problem if the investigation will take longer than 10 business days. You should call your card provider as soon as you notice your card is missing or notice charges you don't recognize.

PROTECTIONS FOR LOSS, THEFT, OR ERRORS ON OTHER PREPAID CARDS

Depending on your card, you may also have some protections in case of an unauthorized transaction or other error in your account. Check your cardholder agreement to find out about your specific card's terms and conditions.
